Dear graduate students,

Big News! The Graduate Research Forum, previously held as a call-out, will now become the Dean's Doctoral Student Spotlight! This year, we will celebrate graduate student research excellence and will invite up to 20 presentations from the 50+ minutes to compete for recognition. Your dean's request for proposals deadline Nov. 10. Proposal Subm. Deadline: Jan. 4.

Lover ours from the Dean and keep an eye out for more announcements!

Upcoming Events

Black Grad Success Weekly Workshop: Tuesday, 10 a.m., Noon, Lytle Reimagine Place Black Culture Garden. Two hour for Black Graduate, undergraduate, and non-traditional students to connect together in community. Drop-in, no registration needed.

Parent/Graduate/Non-Traditional Student Therapy Group: Thursdays, 2 – 4 p.m. Affirming space for all non-traditional students including those who are parenting, if you are parenting, if you are parenting, if you are parenting, if you are parenting.

Indian Ways of Learning Webinar: 20th of Oct Noon PST (PDT) 1215 University of Oregon, Eugene OR 97403-1219 directConnect Webinar: By Dec. 2 9 a.m. – 11 a.m. Connected with peers for a wellness and anti-racist "cooling break" featuring short films/documentaries produced by UO graduate students. Location and other details coming soon.

Professional Development

New grant/ISRF/Research Resources:
Institutional support, award, and global career opportunities!

BDR@ufn.com: Curated, relevant, timely updates.

Visit this website: "What are my research opportunities?" Visit for details.

Writing Support:

Do you prefer individual coaching? Or are you curious about other writing options?

Funding Resources

Funding is available for academic and research projects. Visit the "Get Funding" and "International" sections to access guidance on:

- Grant Writing
- Research Writing
- International Support

Institutional Support for Prestigious Fellowship Programs

For additional information on grant opportunities or proposal writing, contact Research Development Services at 541-346-2700.

Doctoral Student Spotlight

Rachel Cushman: For over 20 years, Rachel has been working to protect Chinook and Indigenous waters, lands, rights, and sovereignty. She is also a member of the inaugural cohort of the University of Oregon's Indigenous Studies program at UO. In 2019, she was named a leader in the fight to regain rights, and sovereignty. She is also a member of the inaugural cohort of the University of Oregon's Indigenous Studies program at UO. In 2019, she was named a leader in the fight to regain

You are being sent this message based on your affiliation with the University of Oregon.