Dear graduate students,

This message is for you, the graduate student community at the University of Oregon. Your affiliation with UO means you have access to a wide range of resources and opportunities designed to support your academic and professional development. Whether you need guidance on grant writing, career exploration, or community engagement, we have resources tailored to meet your needs.

New Webinars and Resources

- Institutional Support for Prestigious Fellowship Programs: This webinar will cover strategies for securing prestigious fellowships, including how to tailor your application to meet the specific requirements of different programs.
- Grant Writing and Proposal Preparation: Learn from experienced grant writers on how to develop strong, effective proposals for research funding.
- Self-guided, peer facilitated writing: Engage in facilitation that provides support and structure for writing, whether you are working on a dissertation or other scholarly writing.

Calls for Student Spotlight

- Nominate a student for graduation spotlight: Share the achievements of your peers. This opportunity highlights the diverse and accomplished student body at UO.

Leadership Opportunities

- Expression of Interest to Serve on UO’s Advisory Councils: Participate in campus governance by applying to serve on one of the university’s advisory councils.

Graduate Student Newsletter - Oct. 13, 2022

- Call for Student Spotlight: Recognition is available for students who have made significant contributions on campus. You can nominate a student for the spotlight here.

Upcoming Events

- Graduate Research Forum: A series of events aimed at providing graduate students with opportunities to practice and develop their research presentation skills.

Quick Links

- Visit the Grad Studies website: For more information and resources.

We hope this newsletter provides you with valuable insights and connections to support your academic and professional growth. If you have any questions or need further assistance, please don’t hesitate to reach out.

Best regards,
[Your Name]