March 2020

COVID-19: Worker Health & Public Health

As California’s Wildfires Get Worse, Domestic Workers Fight For Protection

Are you interested in serving on the Worksafe Board, or do you know someone who is? Worksafe seeks new Board members to help us take on the challenges and opportunities of the future.

Dr. Carisa Harris-Adamson

Congratulations, Shelly! Hooray! Cool! And I am so excited to see you in this space. I am so happy to be here.

Worksafe's Board Welcomes New Members

With fire season fast approaching, we are urging Cal/OSHA to adopt a Temporary Wildfire Smoke Emergency Standard that is our strong belief that any social compact regarding the Future of Work must cover occupational health and safety.

Worksafe Managing Attorney Jora Trang took the lead in authoring the comments on behalf of numerous close allies. The letter urges that the standards must cover occupational health and safety.

With fire season fast approaching, we are urging Cal/OSHA to adopt a Temporary Wildfire Smoke Emergency Standard that is our strong belief that any social compact regarding the Future of Work must cover occupational health and safety.

Worksafe Managing Attorney Jora Trang took the lead in authoring the comments on behalf of numerous close allies. The letter urges that the standards must cover occupational health and safety.

With fire season fast approaching, we are urging Cal/OSHA to adopt a Temporary Wildfire Smoke Emergency Standard that is our strong belief that any social compact regarding the Future of Work must cover occupational health and safety.

Worksafe Managing Attorney Jora Trang took the lead in authoring the comments on behalf of numerous close allies. The letter urges that the standards must cover occupational health and safety.