Dear Colleague--

Happy Thanksgiving to our friends in the United States! Jane and I are celebrating with our families while Jenna enjoys some vacation time and Ana holds down the fort.

In October, the Emerging Destinations team had visits onsite with our newest client, Babanango Game Reserve and I just finished a week-long sales trip in Florida with Seyms, their Sales & Marketing Manager. We feel very confident in our knowledge of Babanango!

In other news, Elewana's double circuit discount deal continues to be very popular, SkySafari now offers babysitting services, EcoTraining has some great Black Friday deals and Anantara and Adventure Consults have updated covid info.

As always, we're happy to assist with anything you need! Book a virtual appointment with me (Jessie) above. I'm always happy to virtually catch up over coffee...or wine.

The Emerging Destinations team

After a long hiatus because of the pandemic, Shanga has revived its popular events, activities and information sessions at Arusha Coffee Lodge for guests and local residents of northern Tanzania. Read more here.

Three New Ways to Overnight on Safari

Brand-new Babanango Game Reserve in South Africa offers three overnight options, each of them tucked into its own slice of pristine bush and with distinct offerings, activities and facilities to better cater to your South African safari wants and needs. Read more here.

Located on the banks of a river from which it has taken its name, Elewana Sand River Masai Mara is located within the Masai Mara National Reserve, close to the Tanzanian border.

The cuisine at Anantara’s Bazaruto Island Resort on Mozambique’s Indian Ocean coast is inspired by the surroundings.

Fresh-from-the-boat locally sourced seafood, as well as the indigenous herbs and spices from the resort garden, infuse the complex layered flavors of Mozambique, Portugal and beyond at the resort’s two restaurants. Read more here.

The Art of Walking in the African Bush

David Havemann, the Training Manager at EcoTraining in southern Africa, offers his advice on how to get the most out of exploring the African bush on foot.

I’ve always told my guest when walking out in the bush to read it like a book. Start on the horizon and scan from left to right and don’t forget to scan the trees close to you — there might be a Black Mamba looking back at you from its den.
