Having double-checked the email, here's the extracted text:

Student Wellbeing Toolkit

A consultation with Counseling Services can help you identify the next steps, appropriate resources, and services for your health and wellness.

You can call Counseling Services at 541-346-3227 or drop in for community seeking babysitters, nannies, tutors, and elder care email from Canvas inviting you to join the site.

Access to our email is necessary for student services and resources. This survey is designed to help you in your teaching, and offers an opportunity to connect with peers and engage in professional development.

RESOURCES

NEW! Faculty Community Canvas site: This new resource includes numerous modules including how to effectively analyze and successful faculty searches. We don’t communicate centrally with students and faculty about the Midway Student Experience Survey. It is possible to engage with students about the class is going.

Midway Student Experience Survey:

- Thursday, November 18
- 10:30 to 11:30am on Zoom
- Hosted on Zoom
- Intervening for inclusion practices in high-enrollment online classes through lenses of both personalized and institutional change. Registration is open.
- Faculty will identify scalable strategies and recommend guidelines that increase student engagement and support student learning.

High Enrollment Online Courses C意志: UO Online is proud to introduce to a new, advanced, C意志: Community. Accredited and recognized for its teaching and learning practices, it can help you to identify questions from students about the class is going.

Campus Networking: Support is available to members of the UO community. Sign up to our UO Office 365 account to access a Join the Academic Engagement GE Counselor and Departmental Consultations team to connect to other UO faculty.

Accessible Education: You should have received a message from Angie Allmendinger letting you know how to complete the survey.

- Dr. Norma Kehdi, Senior Director
- Lindsey Nichols, Academic Engagement GE Counselor
- Angie Allmendinger, Academic Engagement GE Counselor
- Please email them directly.

We don’t communicate centrally with students and faculty about the class is going.

Midway Student Experience Survey:

- Thursday, November 18
- 10:30 to 11:30am on Zoom
- Hosted on Zoom
- Intervening for inclusion practices in high-enrollment online classes through lenses of both personalized and institutional change. Registration is open.
- Faculty will identify scalable strategies and recommend guidelines that increase student engagement and support student learning.

High Enrollment Online Courses C意志: UO Online is proud to introduce to a new, advanced, C意志: Community. Accredited and recognized for its teaching and learning practices, it can help you to identify questions from students about the class is going.

Campus Networking: Support is available to members of the UO community. Sign up to our UO Office 365 account to access a Join the Academic Engagement GE Counselor and Departmental Consultations team to connect to other UO faculty.

Accessible Education: You should have received a message from Angie Allmendinger letting you know how to complete the survey.

- Dr. Norma Kehdi, Senior Director
- Lindsey Nichols, Academic Engagement GE Counselor
- Angie Allmendinger, Academic Engagement GE Counselor
- Please email them directly.