Dear graduate students,

Hello from the Division of Graduate Studies! We are looking forward to seeing everyone on campus for the start of fall term in a few short weeks.

Small foul for a summary of the events, resources and training coming our way this week. Make sure to check out our One Stop page for more graduate student resources and how to stay in touch for additional updates.

Events

Family Housing and University Apartments Resource Fair
When: Wed., Sept. 7 from 11 a.m. - 1 p.m. Where: Spokane View Community Room
What: The University Housing Family Resource Fair is an opportunity to connect with resource and activities for children.

Introduction to Graduate Teaching Fellows (SGT) and GQF Health Insurance Information Sessions
When: Tues., Sept. 6 from 5 - 7:30 p.m. Where: Prince Lucien Campbell Hall (PLC), 190
What: Join fellow GBEs to learn critically important information about your own, your mentor’s, and your university’s related health insurance. Learn more and register.

Graduate Student Welcome Lunch and Resource Fair
When: Tues., Sept. 6 from 11 a.m. - 1 p.m. Where: Prince Lucien Campbell Hall (PLC), 109
What: Connect with fellow graduate students across campus, meet new colleagues and departments, and enjoy a free lunch. Register here.

Resources

One Stop Graduate Student Resources
Visit the comprehensive directory of campus resources and services expressly tailored for graduate students.

Resource Spotlight: University Health Center
Finding healthcare in a new city can be a challenge. If you need a provider, the University Health Center is a great option. It is open to all students, including those in graduate programs, and provides access to new GEs with access to high-quality mental health services and a link into a supported and equipped UO teaching community. Learn more and register here.

Professional Development and Career Support

Graduate Student Orientation
Graduate Student Orientation is a self-paced Canvas course designed to familiarize graduate students with the UO Graduate School, how to access career development, and connect them to professional development and networking opportunities.

Graduate Employee Day of Teaching
The annual Graduate Employee Day of Teaching will be held on Wednesday, Sept. 21 from 10 a.m. - 5 p.m., which allows new GEs to access high-quality teacher training and indexing it into a supported and equipped UO teaching community. Learn more and register here.

Graduate Employee Day of Teaching
Graduate Employee Day of Teaching will be held on Wednesday, Sept. 21 from 10 a.m. - 5 p.m., which allows new GEs to access high-quality teacher training and indexing it into a supported and equipped UO teaching community. Learn more and register here.

Funding Opportunities

Summer Support for International Students
Eligible students are invited to apply for a leadership-based summer academic support opportunity (up to $1,000) as a component of the 2022-23 academic year. The application is due by April 30, 2022. Learn more and apply here.

Graduate Student Assistance Fund
Graduate students who experience financial hardship related to a qualifying event (such as moving, divorce, medical issue, or paying for childcare expenses) are encouraged to apply for assistance. Learn more here.

Howard Hughes Medical Institute Gilliam Fellowships for AdvancedGraduate Students
The Howard Hughes Medical Institute Gilliam Fellowships for Advanced Graduate Students provides seed grants to graduate students in order to fund their research projects at the beginning of their graduate careers. Learn more here.

Quick Links

One Stop
Visit your One Stop page in comprehensive directory of campus resources and services expressly tailored for graduate students.

Share a story
Follow us on Instagram to get weekly updates on events, resources, and other great happenings.

Information about the events, resources, and training coming our way this week. Make sure to check out our One Stop page for more graduate student resources and how to stay in touch for additional updates.