Events

Family Housing and University Apartments Resource Fair

When: Monday, Sept. 12 from 11:15 a.m. – 1:30 p.m. Where: Spectrum Union

While we have a strong interest in the vibrant campus life of students living on campus, we also recognize the importance of students living off campus.

Graduate Student Orientation

The Graduate Student Orientation is a self-paced Canvas course open to all graduate students and can be accessed throughout your time at UO. Content is organized to help you transition from student to campus citizen.

Graduate Employee Day of Teaching

All new Graduate Employees are required to participate in a one-time training. The Graduate Employee Day of Teaching is completed as soon as possible, but no later than the second week of fall term.

Professional Development and Career Support

Graduate Student Newsletter - Sept. 8, 2022

We hope you are enjoying the start of the fall term and that you are surrounded by good weather, good friends, and good food. We are looking forward to seeing everyone on campus for the start of fall term in a few short weeks.

Students can contact wh wys@uoregon.edu or via their union-negotiated and recognized graduate employee organization.

Funding Opportunities

Summer Support for International Students

Summer support is available to International Students with limited financial support who are in need of support over the summer for living expenses, such as the Graduate Student Assistance Fund. To qualify for the Graduate Student Assistance Fund, students must be pursuing a graduate degree with teaching or research assistantship funding in the 2022-23 academic year and must complete the application by May 30.
