P2P Family Story: My Name is Olivia

"My name is Olivia, I am Alejandro's mother and this is my story. Alejandro was born on September 13, which in Mexico commemorates the Niños Héroes, young soldiers who gave their lives for the country. We always make the comment that Alejandro is my little hero." Read More

P2P Family Story: Clyde

"Clyde was diagnosed with Autism when he was 3 years old. Since his diagnosis, he has received both private speech therapy and speech therapy through school and private occupational therapies. We have tried many times since he was a toddler to find a decent outreach program where he could interact with others with the hope of developing friendships without much success. We counted down the days until his 13th birthday so he could start attending the SOAR events." Read More

Note From Parent to Parent

Happy March!

I hope March will bring glorious sunshine and better weather. There is so much happening and changing so fast in our world that it is hard to keep up. I feel it locally and across the country. The legislative session is in progress right now and you have an opportunity to share your thoughts and concerns with our local legislators. It may seem sometimes that our voice doesn't matter, but your voice as a parent matters so much. You are living this life day to day, and those who are making the decisions that impact our families may not have any idea what we go through. One voice, one story may make a difference on how they vote on bills and laws.

Our local representatives and their emails are listed below. We are in the 16th district. The ARC of Washington has a bill tracker that they update often if you want to look on their website to learn more. Their website is arcwa.org.

Representative Skyler Rude, skyler.rude@leg.wa.gov, (360) 786-7828

Representative Mark Klicker, mark.klicker@leg.wa.gov, (360) 786-7836

Senator Perry Dozier, perry.dozier@leg.wa.gov, (360) 786-7630

On another note, please check out our website for fun events and meetings to attend in March.

Sincerely,

Angie and Ysabel
