

Travel Oregon CEO, Todd Davidson, Inducted Into U.S. Travel Hall of Leaders

The U.S. Travel Association announced last month that Todd Davidson, Travel Oregon CEO, would be inducted into the U.S. Travel Association Hall of Leaders in a formal ceremony to take place in November in Washington D.C. Spurgeon Richardson, former president of the Atlanta Convention & Visitors Bureau will also be inducted.

"Todd has built one of the great state travel promotion organizations in our country, and has given his time to advance our industry by serving selflessly on numerous federal committees and boards, and chairing the U.S. Travel board," said Roger Dow, CEO, U.S. Travel.

Davidson began as Travel Oregon's executive director in 1996 and was named CEO in 2004. Under his leadership, the Oregon tourism industry has grown to an $11.8 billion industry.
