July 2024

Dear Colleague,

I hope you're enjoying summer and taking advantage of the long days and nice weather to spend some quality time outdoors in nature or playing sports.

For those of you planning a last minute summer escape, I highly recommend taking a short flight to Panama and the paradise Bocas del Toro islands in the Caribbean Sea (it's currently "wave season" for good surfing and the archipelago is outside the hurricane belt). Our friends at La Coralina Island House have some great options (like a 5x4) for you and your clients.

Wildlife lovers can take advantage of some great discounts available for sailing the Galapagos Islands with Enchanted Expeditions onboard any of their three motor yachts. Specials valid on selected departure dates are being offered for the remainder of this month, plus August and September. I've done this trip twice already and can help you convince your clients or decide which itinerary to book.

Patagonia is one of the world's most stunning regions and a once in a lifetime experience for sure. October marks the start of a new season and Hotel Las Torres in Chile still has availability and will be unveiling rooms completely renovated and refurbished. Find out more below. River House Lodge in Argentina has some unbeatable promos for those who want to enjoy the beauty of the annual spring bloom.

Guyana is always a good choice for adventurous travelers and people looking for remote, off the beaten path places.

I invite you to browse this month's blogs and specials below and hopefully gain some new ideas for your clients' next trips.

Best regards,

Ana (on behalf of the Emerging Destinations team)
