the Tufts community. We provide pastoral care, support religious and philosophical communities, educate about

The University Chaplaincy is a dynamic hub supporting religious, spiritual, ethical, and cultural life for all members of work. To donate, please click on the button below. Thank you for your generosity.

Supporting dynamic programs at Tufts University in religious, spiritual, ethical, and cultural life is easy and vital to our

The University Chaplaincy Enews is published weekly by the Tufts University Chaplaincy to promote programs and

Upcoming Religious Holidays and Festivals

Protestant and Roman Catholics observe it.

Celebrates the entry of Jesus into Jerusalem, marking the beginning of Holy Week that culminates in Easter or epics that tells the story of Rama, is read during the previous eight days.

Palm Sunday

Ramanavami

Thursday, 3.26.2020

Harvard Divinity School. To see more upcoming religious holidays and festivals, please click

Find more information about CAFE at for first-year students who want to explore identities, improve interfaith understanding, and learn community

The Tufts University Chaplaincy is pleased to announce the hire of the Student Coordinator and Student Support

Congratulations to the CAFE Coordinator and Support Staffer

Weekly topics are:

Thursdays, April 2, 9, 16, and 22, 8:00 p.m. - 9:00 p.m. ET

Muslim Chaplain Chats

Join the events via Zoom by clicking

Since we cannot share in Communion in person, we will instead have a virtual "agape meal" in remembrance of April 5:

I made at Christian camps who led me to engineering at Tufts." Join us this Sunday to hear Join PSA in the tradition of Senior Sermons this Sunday. Senior Elliot Pavlovich (pictured

March 29

April 9 - Faith & Doubt

April 2 - Relationships

Religious and Philosophical Life Programs

Our Chaplains are still here for you, no matter where you are in the world or how you are doing at this time. Click on

Check-In with a Chaplain

I am sending blessings of health and peace from all of us here at Tufts University Chaplaincy. Please let us know if community. This week sparked a short reflection about

Relying on my faith on this topic in the here on this planet, doing work I care about. Think about what refuels you.

shifting information and shifting needs. I'm trying to take time each day to refuel and remember the gift of just being close by sharing some of what is grounding me these days:

Dear Tufts Community,

Do you have an idea for how the University Chaplaincy can support you?

A Note From the University Chaplain

Announcing Wendell Phillips Baccalaureate Speaker

Tufts University Chaplain, there are particular ways we can continue to support you as you finish your spring semester.

Congratulations to all three finalists for their

Wendell Phillips Address is intended to deliver attorney, orator, abolitionist, and advocate for the graduating senior class, might help make a message to inspire the graduating class and stirring speeches, as well as all those who were virtually this year as part of Commencement

Baccalaureate Ceremony which will take place

ad interim

Nora.Bond@tufts.edu

Daniel.Bell@tufts.edu

Lynn.Cooper@tufts.edu

New York Times by Lori Gottlieb

Giving Tuesday

Giving Tuesday

Giving Tuesday

Giving Tuesday