portals through which we may still enter, both together and individually, en route to collective wellbeing. This opening allows for movements from inside to outside, or outside to inside. But what is the opening when we cannot enter? This discussion of the opening and the process of opening is an important one.

Mondays and Fridays, 12:00 p.m. - 1:00 p.m. ET

Buddhist Chaplaincy

Our churches, the first Sunday of Advent marks the beginning of the Christian liturgical year. A period of four weeks in which Christians prepare for Christmas and meditate on the end of all time. In Western Tradition: Christianity-Protestant, Christianity-Roman Catholic

Diwali (Dipavali)

As with several other festivals, Diwali is a celebration of light and victory over darkness. It is celebrated in India, especially in the state of Karnataka, and is known as the festival of lights. It is also known as the festival of goddesses, Goddess Kali in Bengal and to Lakshmi, the goddess of wealth, in the rest of India. As with several other festivals, Diwali is a time of spiritual renewal and growth.

12 p.m. - 1p.m. Please email Program Manager Nora Bond.

A major Voice.

We all heard it,

cool and clear,

harvest:

The major Voice.

And

we all heard it,

We all heard it.
