Critical Times, Critical Thinkers: Art, Activism, Resilience

This panel aims to present a critical exchange amongst global artists and curators about the response of the arts and social restrictions (praxis). Speakers will discuss how artistic work can support critical thinking, social action, and solidarity to current global crises and hierarchies and histories of hegemonic power. We want to explore art and social equity and gender dynamics.

Applications due May 15

Ramadan

The Holy Month of Ramadan is the month of fasting during which Muslims who are physically able do not eat or drink during daylight hours. Ramadan begins with the New Moon and lasts for 29 or 30 days. The month is observed by various religious, cultural, and social customs.

Ongoing through Wednesday, 5.12.2021

Holy Saturday

Celebrated on the 33rd day of the Counting of the Omer, which occurs on the 18th day of the Hebrew month of Iyar, Holy Saturday is the day between Jesus' death and his resurrection. It is considered one of the last odd nights of Ramadan.

Temple Shalom Religious School, a small and friendly Conservative Movement affiliated school in Medford, is currently accepting applications for the 2021-22 school year. Applications are now free of charge for students without meal plans, so make sure to email both chaplaincy@tufts.edu and rabbis@tufts.edu to be considered for these positions. Reverend Elyse Nelson Winger.

Sowing and Growing: An Interfaith Community Celebration

Friday, April 30, 1:30 p.m - 3:30 p.m ET

This event is a celebration of interfaith cooperation and community involvement. Everyone is invited to participate in planting a community garden. If you have an idea for how University Chaplaincy programming can better serve you, please email chaplaincy@tufts.edu.

are now free of charge for students without meal plans, so make sure to email both chaplaincy@tufts.edu and rabbis@tufts.edu to be considered for these positions. Reverend Elyse Nelson Winger.

Jamat Al-Vida

The last Friday of the Holy Month of Ramadan before Eid Al-Fitr.

Friday, 5.7.2021

Friday, 5.1.2021

Orthodox Holy Saturday

Celebrated on the 33rd day of the Counting of the Omer, which occurs on the 18th day of the Hebrew month of Iyar, Holy Saturday is the day between Jesus' death and his resurrection. It is considered one of the last odd nights of Ramadan.

Friday, 4.30.2021

Lag BaOmer

Celebrated on the 33rd day of the Counting of the Omer, which occurs on the 18th day of the Hebrew month of Iyar, Holy Saturday is the day between Jesus' death and his resurrection. It is considered one of the last odd nights of Ramadan.

Monday, 4.19 – Saturday, 5.1.2021

Ridvan

The 12th night of the Bahá’í calendar, a time of prayer, reflection, and service. Celebrations vary among Bahá’í communities, and may include cooking iftar meals, giving gifts, and visiting friends and family.

Sunday, 4.11.2021

Carnival Day

Tradition: Hinduism

A festival celebrated by Hindus to honor the Hindu God Hanuman. It is also known as Bonalu or Balumantika in Telugu. On this day, devotees offer flowers and fruits to Hanuman, andChild 5.9.

Friday, 4.9.2021

Beltane

A traditional Celtic holiday celebrated on May 1st, marking the beginning of summer.

Monday, 4.19.2021

Tradition: Catholic

A day of repentance and prayer, observed in the Roman Catholic Church.

Wednesday, 4.21.2021

Tufts University Jewish Chaplain

Are you a total interfaith newbie? Rather than teach you what interfaith is via PowerPoint slides, the Interfaith Youth Core will present a two-part training about the history and core tenets of interfaith, and then take you on a tour of the Tufts campus. We'll make sure this event is as accessible as possible for people with disabilities and will also make arrangements to make this event as sustainable as possible by bringing a planter container of any kind (i.e. plastic water bottle or tea cup) for everyone.

Interfaith for Rookies: A Two-Part Training (Part 1)

Thursday, April 29, 4:30 p.m - 5:45 p.m ET

This panel aims to present a critical exchange amongst global artists and curators about the response of the arts and social restrictions (praxis). Speakers will discuss how artistic work can support critical thinking, social action, and solidarity to current global crises and hierarchies and histories of hegemonic power. We want to explore art and social equity and gender dynamics.

Sowing and Growing: An Interfaith Community Celebration

Friday, April 30, 1:30 p.m - 3:30 p.m ET

This event is a celebration of interfaith cooperation and community involvement. Everyone is invited to participate in planting a community garden. If you have an idea for how University Chaplaincy programming can better serve you, please email chaplaincy@tufts.edu.

are now free of charge for students without meal plans, so make sure to email both chaplaincy@tufts.edu and rabbis@tufts.edu to be considered for these positions. Reverend Elyse Nelson Winger.

Sowing and Growing: An Interfaith Community Celebration

Friday, April 30, 1:30 p.m - 3:30 p.m ET

This event is a celebration of interfaith cooperation and community involvement. Everyone is invited to participate in planting a community garden. If you have an idea for how University Chaplaincy programming can better serve you, please email chaplaincy@tufts.edu.

are now free of charge for students without meal plans, so make sure to email both chaplaincy@tufts.edu and rabbis@tufts.edu to be considered for these positions. Reverend Elyse Nelson Winger.