Diversity and Inclusion.

Envisioning Tufts as an antiracist institution is an urgent discussion that the Tufts Bridging Differences Initiative will host in a webinar on Thursday, April 29, from 4:30 p.m. to 5:45 p.m. ET.

Critical Times, Critical Thinkers: Art, Activism, Resilience

This webinar, sponsored by the Tufts Buddhist Chaplaincy, the Office of Diversity and Inclusion at Tufts, and the Tufts Community. Sponsored by the Tufts Buddhist Chaplaincy, will be held on Wednesday, April 28, at 12:00 p.m. ET.

Participating in a community of older readers is equally engaging for our children and the children of the world. This is the message of Aesop's fables, which have been loved since ancient times. Aesop's fables are a collection of short stories that serve as moral lessons, often centered around animals. The fables teach valuable life lessons, such as the importance of wisdom, courage, and kindness.

ACK is an Indian publisher of graphic novels based on biographies, religious figures and cultural stories, founded in 1967 by Anant Pai. Largely a response to supporting children in learning about their heritage, the series also has a unique charm. The fables are translated into different languages, allowing children to explore their cultural roots and connect with their heritage.

Commemorating the reunification of Jerusalem and the establishment of Israeli control over the Old City in the city of Jerusalem was a significant event in history. It marked the establishment of the Jewish state, which was recognized by the United Nations in 1947. The event is celebrated as Jerusalem Day on Friday, April 30, 2021.

In Islamic belief, it is the night when the first verses of the Quran were revealed to the prophet Muhammad. It is considered one of the last odd nights of Ramadan.

The final event of Ramadan is the celebration of the return of the Prophet Muhammad to heaven. This event is celebrated as the Night of Ascension, marking the end of the fasting month.

We are now free of charge for students without meal plans, so make sure to email both the contact program manager and the university chaplaincy to arrange these matters.

We would like to invite you to our office of religious and spiritual life at Tufts University Chaplaincy | Goddard Chapel, 3 The Green | Medford, MA 02155 US to offer our pastoral care, support religious and philosophical communities, educate about traditions, and act as a bridge between religious and non-religious communities and individuals working towards the common good. Ambassadors will include a dedication to diversity and inclusion and will have access to potentially paid positions in the Office of Religious and Spiritual Life at Tufts University.

You can contact us directly by phone at 617.627.3427 or via email at chaplaincy@tufts.edu. You can also find the Zoom links for all events and gatherings there.

The interfaith student council (ISC) at Tufts University is an organization that brings together students from various religious and spiritual backgrounds. The ISC provides a platform for students to engage in interfaith dialogue, celebrate cultural diversity, and work towards creating a more inclusive and harmonious campus community.

The ISC is dedicated to fostering an environment of mutual respect and understanding among students from different faiths. They organize events, workshops, and discussions aimed at promoting interfaith understanding and raising awareness about different religious and cultural traditions.

It's a great opportunity for students to learn about different faiths, engage in meaningful conversations, and develop cross-cultural friendships. Whether you're a practicing member of a specific religion or simply interested in exploring different beliefs, the ISC is a welcoming community that encourages everyone to come together and celebrate the diversity of the human experience.

The ISC at Tufts University is a testament to the power of inclusivity and the importance of bringing people from different backgrounds together. By fostering a culture of mutual respect and understanding, the ISC contributes to the overall campus community and promotes a more harmonious and respectful environment for all students.
