January 2024

Dear Colleague,

Happy New Year! On behalf of the Emerging Destinations team, we wish you health and happiness in 2024.

Our big news to start the year is a new team member — Paula Newton in California — who joins Emerging Destinations with a wealth of knowledge from her long and varied experience in the travel industry.

For those who haven't yet booked a North Atlantic voyage for this summer, Iceland ProCruises is extending their popular Early Bird Special until February 29th. As you might have already heard, the volcano that recently erupted in southwest Iceland is no longer spewing lava. Get the latest on the volcano here!

If you have any questions, please schedule a 1:1 with me. Meanwhile, the Emerging Destinations is coming back to the U.S. this March. Let us know if you're in San Diego, Orange County, Los Angeles, Philadelphia, New York or Boston and want to hear from our cool clients in cool places!

Warm regards,

Jenna, Ana & Jane

City Breaks Part II Porto

PORTO & NORTH

City Breaks - PORTO

Some say that the North of Portugal begins in Porto, others say it ends there. Whether it's the beginning, middle or end of your journey, Porto welcomes everything and everyone with its blend of ancient and modern, river and sea, work and leisure, never-ending party and romantic melancholy.
