RESEARCH

CINA Research Student Awarded Fellowship To Support Research in Disrupting Human Trafficking Networks

Daniel Kosmas, a PhD student in the Mathematics Department at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, has been awarded a three-year fellowship. The fellowship will support Kosmas’ research in disruptinig human trafficking through the development of new mathematical models.

NEWS

CINA Welcomes 2020-21 Open RFP White Paper Submissions

The Center for Criminal Investigations and Network Analysis (CINA) is seeking white paper submissions on topics relevant to disrupting human trafficking. The white papers should be 5-10 pages, and will be evaluated based on their potential to contribute to the center's research portfolio.

DISTINGUISHED SPEAKER SERIES

Session Recap: "Transaction Laundering and the Facilitation of Cybercrime Through the Online Payment Ecosystem"

The latest interview in Moment Magazine, with Martin Bechard from Legitscript talk about transaction laundering and the facilitation of cybercrime through the online payment ecosystem.

Event Brief: "Social Outlaws: What Social Outlaws Tell Us About Gangs" with Martin Bechard

Join us for the next Distinguished Speaker Series event with Martin Bechard as he discusses the latest interview in Moment Magazine, "Social Outlaws: What Social Outlaws Tell Us About Gangs."