Reclaiming the Ancestors: Indigenous and Black Perspectives on Repatriation, Human Rights, and Justice

September 2, 2020 at 4:00 PM EDT

Register below for this online event

Today, more than 100,000 Native American ancestral remains are still held in U.S. public museums alone, while an unknown number of remains of people of African descent are stored in museum collections.

What does it mean to turn human beings into artifacts? What happens to the living communities who lose control and ownership over their own ancestors and heritage? In exploring these questions, this panel will discuss how repatriation--the process of reclaiming and returning ancestral and human remains--can address inequality.
