On the Cover

The Peabody: Deep in the peat swamp of a high-moraine south of camp in Summit Pass, September 5, 1944. Photograph by Hugh M. Raup on the Andover-Harvard Yukon Expedition, an archaeological and geobotanical eld project carried out by the Peabody and Harvard University. Some of those included in the project were Frederick Johnson (archaeologist), Hugh M. Raup (botanist), and John H.H. Sticht (geologist). Sticht is most likely the individual in this picture.
