Students light candles during prayer time, Protestant Evening Worship, Jan. 19, 2025, Goddard Chapel

A Reflection from the University Chaplaincy

“This little light of mine, I’m gonna let it shine.”

Last Sunday at Protestant Evening Worship (PEW) we sang this beloved spiritual in Goddard Chapel as we gathered for our first service of the new semester. It is a longstanding tradition at PEW to let our little lights shine by lighting candles and placing them in sand as we pray in a circle around the Communion table. This simple ritual, which has been practiced for well over a decade by the Protestant community on campus, is a meaningful way for students to slow down, pray, and reflect at the beginning of the week. It is also a powerful reminder that, while our individual lights may seem very small, engulfed by the darkness of life’s cares and concerns, our lights combined become a beacon of hope and resilience.

“Darkness cannot drive out darkness,” Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King declared. “Only light can do that.” As we celebrate and reflect on his life and legacy this week and next (learn more about Tufts’ 2025 MLK Celebration on January 30 below), how can we let our collective light shine brighter? What can we do to join our little lights together to make a bigger impact than we ever could alone?

None of us can do everything. But I believe each of us can do something to make life better for others. With our skills and talents, dreams and passions, and—above all—our care and compassion, we can join as one to work for a better world, a more perfect union, the Beloved Community at the heart of King's vision. "Everybody can be great because everybody can serve," King said. "You only need a heart full of grace. A soul generated by love." So, with grace and love, Jumbos, let your light shine.

Peace and Light,
Dan

2025 Annual Celebration

WHERE DO WE GO FROM HERE?
THE PROMISE OF FREEDOM, DEMOCRACY, AND JUSTICE

Thursday, January 30 • 5:30 p.m. - 7:00 p.m.
Cohen Auditorium, followed by a reception in Alumnae Hall

RSVP
HERE

Join the Africana Center, the Office of the President, the Office of the Vice Provost for Institutional Inclusive Excellence, Tisch College of Civic Life, and the University Chaplaincy for the annual Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Celebration.

Our 2025 theme is inspired by Dr. King's 1967 speech, Where Do We Go From Here?, emphasizing love and power as tools for transformation. The following excerpt from this powerful speech is guiding our Celebration this year:

"Power without love is reckless and abusive, and love without power is sentimental and anemic. Power at its best is love implementing the demands of justice, and justice at its best is power correcting everything that stands against love."

This year's event highlights the resilience and power of Black joy as a force for equity and freedom. Featuring Haitian Folkloric dance group Jean Appolon Expressions and Tufts' own Ladies of Essence and S-Factor, the celebration will also showcase the MLK Student Voices Award winners. Join us for an evening of reflection and inspiration, with a reception to follow.

The event will be live-streamed and recorded. ASL interpreters will be available.

Please contact chaplaincy@tufts.edu with any questions.

The Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. 2025 Annual Celebration

Thursday, January 30th from 5:30 PM to 7:00 PM in Cohen Auditorium

The Africana Center, the Office of the President, the Office of the Vice Provost for Institutional Inclusive Excellence, Tisch College of Civic Life, and the University Chaplaincy invite you to the annual Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Celebration.

The celebration will take place on Thursday, January 30, 2025, from 5:30 PM to 7:00 PM in Cohen Auditorium. The event will be live-streamed and recorded, and ASL interpreters will be available to ensure accessibility for all attendees.

This year's theme, "Where Do We Go From Here? The Promise of Freedom, Democracy, and Justice" draws inspiration from Dr. King's 1967 speech, which emphasizes the transformative power of love and justice. The event will highlight the resilience and power of Black joy as a force for equity and freedom.

The evening will feature performances by musicians, poets, dancers, storytellers, and artists from the Tufts and Boston metro community. In addition, the MLK Student Voices Award winners will be honored. This event serves as an opportunity for reflection and inspiration, followed by a dinner reception in Alumnae Hall.

For further information, please contact the University Chaplaincy at chaplaincy@tufts.edu. Join us in honoring Dr. King's legacy and reaffirming our shared commitment to justice, democracy, and freedom.

BE-FRIEND

Be Yourself. Go Deep. Be Friend.

Starts the first week of February.

Be-Friend: The Interfaith Friendship Program (virtual/in-person options)

Beginning the first week of February, sign up by January 31

Great news: Be-Friend is back and in its fifth year! This semester-long interfaith friendship project is designed for participants to go deep and talk about the things that matter - our values, our sense of purpose, and our questions about life. You will hone the skills of active listening while experimenting with shared spiritual practices from different religious and philosophical traditions. Our multifaith chaplains have contributed to the program, offering a diverse array of spiritual practices, including nature walks, meditation exercises, listening to music, and deep reading - of poetry, art, the world, our lives, and one another. Participating undergraduate and graduate students, staff, and faculty will be paired and will commit to spending an hour together each week. Students will be paired with other students, and the same for staff/faculty. The program will begin the first week of February. All are welcome! Please sign up through the links below by January 31. Please email Associate Director Lynn Cooper at Lynn.Cooper@tufts.edu if you have any questions. Learn about our first year of Be-Friend here.
