Here Together: For Students in Covid Isolation or Quarantine

'The Hoch Cunningham Environmental Lecture Series this spring will feature artists, policy makers, scientists, scholars, and community leaders as they grapple with the social, environmental, and health concerns that define our times. Our speakers will explore ways that mindfulness practices promote individual and community well-being. They will guide participants through a day-long program on the origins of mindfulness, the varieties of meditation practice, and the ways that mindfulness practices promote individual and community well-being. The session will be facilitated by the co-founders of the Mindfulness Meditation Center at Tufts University.

Exploring the Spirituals: PSA Lenten Book Club

You are warmly invited to join members of the Protestant Students Association, Protestant Chaplain Dan Bell and Catholic Chaplain Lynn Cooper in virtual services for Ash Wednesday, as we prepare ourselves for Lent, the holy season of renewal and repentance. Music provided by Tom Dawkins, Music Director of the University Chapel.

Throughout Spring Semester 2021, the University Chaplaincy Music Director Tom Dawkins for this year's Lenten book club. We will be exploring the rich traditions of Christianity-Protestant, Christianity-Roman Catholic, Judaism, Hinduism, and Islam in preparation for Holy Week and Easter. Specific events include:

- February 16, 2021: Judaism
- February 23, 2021: Islam
- March 2, 2021: Christianity-Protestant
- March 9, 2021: Christianity-Roman Catholic
- March 16, 2021: Hinduism
- March 23, 2021: Islam
- March 30, 2021: Judaism
- April 6, 2021: Islam
- April 13, 2021: Christianity-Protestant
- April 20, 2021: Christianity-Roman Catholic
- April 27, 2021: Judaism

These events are drawn from the multifaith calendar maintained by the Office of Religious and Spiritual Life at Harvard Divinity School. To see more upcoming religious holidays and festivals, please follow the link to the office's website.

Where do queer people show up in Jewish tradition? What do healthy relationships look like? We make no claims to男同性恋, 女同性恋, and 变性 people. We're interested in asking big questions. Like, Does "the one" exist? What is intimacy? And, how do we use a Jewish lens to talk about these things? We'll be exploring these questions and more through the lens of Talmud.

Join Protestant Chaplain Dan Bell and Catholic Chaplain Lynn Cooper in virtual services for Ash Wednesday, as we prepare ourselves for Lent, the holy season of renewal and repentance. Music provided by Tom Dawkins, Music Director of the University Chapel.

Join Protestant Chaplain Dan Bell and Catholic Chaplain Lynn Cooper in virtual services for Ash Wednesday, as we prepare ourselves for Lent, the holy season of renewal and repentance. Music provided by Tom Dawkins, Music Director of the University Chapel.

Join Protestant Chaplain Dan Bell and Catholic Chaplain Lynn Cooper in virtual services for Ash Wednesday, as we prepare ourselves for Lent, the holy season of renewal and repentance. Music provided by Tom Dawkins, Music Director of the University Chapel.

CASHING OUR PROMISSORY NOTE

Grace Year Fellowship is looking for college graduates interested in a ten month, fully funded fellowship exploring the possibilities of a “grassroots, justice-oriented” career path. The fellowship, which is open to those identifying as Black, Latinx, LGBTQ, or otherwise marginalized, provides opportunities for research and practice in community organizing, social justice, and/or related fields.

Applications for the 2021 cohort are now open. To learn more about the Grace Year Fellowship, visit the website or contact program manager for the fellowship.

Author, historian, and journalist Jelani Cobb, will give the keynote address at this year's symposium. The 2021 Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Symposium: The Quest for Justice and Liberation in a Time of Psychedelic Politics, will be held on February 11-13, 2021. Cobb is the Ira A. Lipman Professor of Journalism at Columbia University as well as staff writer for The New Yorker.

Please join a virtual lunch on Wednesday, February 10 to continue the conversation about the theme of this year's symposium. Author, historian, and journalist Jelani Cobb, will give the keynote address at this year's symposium. The 2021 Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Symposium: The Quest for Justice and Liberation in a Time of Psychedelic Politics, will be held on February 11-13, 2021. Cobb is the Ira A. Lipman Professor of Journalism at Columbia University as well as staff writer for The New Yorker.

Please join a virtual lunch on Wednesday, February 10 to continue the conversation about the theme of this year's symposium. Author, historian, and journalist Jelani Cobb, will give the keynote address at this year's symposium. The 2021 Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Symposium: The Quest for Justice and Liberation in a Time of Psychedelic Politics, will be held on February 11-13, 2021. Cobb is the Ira A. Lipman Professor of Journalism at Columbia University as well as staff writer for The New Yorker.

Please join a virtual lunch on Wednesday, February 10 to continue the conversation about the theme of this year's symposium. Author, historian, and journalist Jelani Cobb, will give the keynote address at this year's symposium. The 2021 Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Symposium: The Quest for Justice and Liberation in a Time of Psychedelic Politics, will be held on February 11-13, 2021. Cobb is the Ira A. Lipman Professor of Journalism at Columbia University as well as staff writer for The New Yorker.

Please join a virtual lunch on Wednesday, February 10 to continue the conversation about the theme of this year's symposium. Author, historian, and journalist Jelani Cobb, will give the keynote address at this year's symposium. The 2021 Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Symposium: The Quest for Justice and Liberation in a Time of Psychedelic Politics, will be held on February 11-13, 2021. Cobb is the Ira A. Lipman Professor of Journalism at Columbia University as well as staff writer for The New Yorker.

Please join a virtual lunch on Wednesday, February 10 to continue the conversation about the theme of this year's symposium. Author, historian, and journalist Jelani Cobb, will give the keynote address at this year's symposium. The 2021 Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Symposium: The Quest for Justice and Liberation in a Time of Psychedelic Politics, will be held on February 11-13, 2021. Cobb is the Ira A. Lipman Professor of Journalism at Columbia University as well as staff writer for The New Yorker.