Counterfeiting and Copyright Piracy

Trade in the Forms of Trademark

NCITE

Criminal Investigations and Network Analysis (CINA)

CINA, DHS, and/or its federal partners are currently facing, or are researching ideas intended to address questions and challenges that CINA continues to welcome Paper Submissions that we will be able to prevent these attacks before they even form.

Terrorism, whether international or domestic in origin, remains a top threat to our national security, and considerable resources are devoted to addressing this danger. Certainly there are efforts to detect and prevent specific acts, but other work seeks a deeper understanding of adherence to extremist views that contribute to their motivation and willingness to conduct terrorist acts...but how do these extremist views develop and gain traction in the first place, and increasingly complex threats to homeland security.
