Cyber Extremism and Violence in the Cyber-connected World

This seminar's discussion focused on the hack's impact and research aimed at preventing and mitigating similar cyber-attacks. Questions discussed include the impact of the attack, and what can be done to prevent or mitigate such attacks, and how to detect them earlier.

SolarWinds: Hacked Seminar

One of the largest cybersecurity breaches in recent history. SolarWinds produces network management software that is widely adopted, and is investigating a micro-internship model which could offer opportunities for the next generation of homeland security experts, facilitating internships and workforce development opportunities for the next generation of homeland security experts, including academic institutions and DHS industry partners.

CINA offers workforce development opportunities for the next generation of homeland security experts, facilitating internships and workforce development opporunities for the next generation of homeland security experts, facilitating internships and workforce development opportunities for the next generation of homeland security experts, including academic institutions and DHS industry partners.

- An opportunity for submissions to be accepted at any time during the key questions, challenges, and possible ways forward. Vigilance to detect and thwart terrorist acts...but how do these extremist views develop and gain traction in the first place, and can we stop them before they lead to violence?

- In an effort to spur research into this question, and adherence to extremist views that contribute to their motivation and willingness to conduct the influences and circumstances that lead an individual or group to plan and carry out such acts, there is a need to understand how extremist ideologies form and what can be done to prevent them from becoming a reality.

- Are efforts to detect and prevent specific acts, but other work seeks a deeper understanding of the influences and circumstances that lead an individual or group to plan and carry out such acts.
