The RFP open period (June 2020 – June 2021).

The opportunity for submissions to be accepted at any time during the RFP open period.

CINA, DHS, and/or its federal partners are currently facing, or are going to face, terrorist attacks. Understanding the key questions, challenges, and possible ways forward.

Vigilance to detect and thwart terrorist attacks remains necessary, but it is through understanding, action, and intervention that we will be able to prevent these attacks before they even form.

Extremism development to share their knowledge, experience, and expertise with the audience. A subset of the group will meet after the event to develop white papers that outline the key questions, challenges, and possible ways forward.

Thursday, March 25, looking at cyber extremism and violence in our highly connected world. And can we stop them before they lead to violence?

Terrorism, whether international or domestic in origin, remains a top threat to our national security and transnational organized crime in the Americas.

Join Digital Archive: CINA Virtual Distinguished Speaker Series on Wednesday, April 14 from 12:00 p.m. - 1:30 p.m.

Learn More and Register

Visit our website's digital archive.

New Micro-Internship Opportunities

CINA continues to focus on enhancing workforce development opportunities for the next generation of homeland security experts, facilitating internships and mentorships for students and recent graduates both within academic institutions and DHS industry partners.

Now Coordinating Summer and Fall virtual internship.

The paid, professional, short-term internship is structured to allow students a shorter experiential learning option.

The new micro-internship model offers students a shorter experiential learning option.

For completion of a specific industry need and usually covers 4-6 weeks.

New Micro-Internship Options

The new micro-internship model offers students a shorter experiential learning option.

Students interested can visit our website's digital archive and submit their ideas to our contact form.

Before 4:30 p.m. you can submit your ideas on our website's digital archive and contact form.

If you have any questions, please contact cina@gmu.edu.

Where: 1404-4564

When: June 25-28, 2021

Join us in DC as we discuss the impact of COVID-19 on the economy, as she discusses the impact of emerging technologies on the future of work, and as she presents her research at the National Science Foundation.

New Coping and Managing Business and Full-Time Employment Opportunities

New Coping and Managing Business and Full-Time Employment Opportunities

While data on this clandestine activity has previously been scarce, there is mounting evidence of the economic, social and environmental losses it can cause.

From smuggling, counterfeiting and tax evasion, to the trafficking of humans and wildlife, illicit trade holds back progress, increases costs and pushes the goals of the communities it serves.

The Digital Archive: CINA Virtual Distinguished Speaker Series on Wednesday, April 14: Fighting Illicit Trade in the Forms of Trademark Infringement, Copyright Infringement, and Counterfeiting.

New Coping and Managing Business and Full-Time Employment Opportunities

Join the webinar on Wednesday, April 14, where he will present his research at the National Science Foundation.

New Coping and Managing Business and Full-Time Employment Opportunities

Now accepting proposals to discuss requirements, timeframe, and areas of interest. Learn how to submit a proposal form.

If you have any questions, please contact cina@gmu.edu.

Where: 1404-4564

When: June 25-28, 2021

Join us in DC as we discuss the impact of emerging technologies on the future of work, and as she presents her research at the National Science Foundation.

New Coping and Managing Business and Full-Time Employment Opportunities

New Coping and Managing Business and Full-Time Employment Opportunities

To learn more about our workforce development opportunities, please contact cina@gmu.edu.

Where: 1404-4564

When: June 25-28, 2021

Join us in DC as we discuss the impact of emerging technologies on the future of work, and as she presents her research at the National Science Foundation.

New Coping and Managing Business and Full-Time Employment Opportunities

New Coping and Managing Business and Full-Time Employment Opportunities

To learn more about our workforce development opportunities, please contact cina@gmu.edu.

Where: 1404-4564

When: June 25-28, 2021

Join us in DC as we discuss the impact of emerging technologies on the future of work, and as she presents her research at the National Science Foundation.

New Coping and Managing Business and Full-Time Employment Opportunities

New Coping and Managing Business and Full-Time Employment Opportunities

To learn more about our workforce development opportunities, please contact cina@gmu.edu.

Where: 1404-4564

When: June 25-28, 2021

Join us in DC as we discuss the impact of emerging technologies on the future of work, and as she presents her research at the National Science Foundation.