Tradition: Wicca/Paganism

Friday, 6.19.2020

also remembered for his contributions to and compilation of the Sikh Scriptures.

Tuesday, 6.16.2020

Martyrdom of Guru Arjan Dev Ji

Sunday, 5.31.2020

Pentecost

Sinai. Begins at sundown.

Thursday, 5.28 – Saturday, 5.30.2020

Shavuot

Wednesday, 5.27.2020

Harvard Divinity School calendar in both informal and classroom settings. To find out more information see the Qualifications include, but are not limited to: a passion for Jewish engagement, and experience working with teens

The position will average 8-10 hours/week from late August 2020 through June 2021. The majority of program opportunity to work with a group of teens who care about their learning, each other, and giving back to the world.

Application deadline: June 15

Part-time job as a Youth Organizer with Temple Sinai in Brookline, MA date, please email Alex Lein, Student Coordinator, at Grants will be awarded from any amount needed up to $3,000 to support payments, the purchase of materials, supplies, and any other resources required for the successful implementation of the projects. Students can work

Tisch College Summer COVID Response Program

The Tufts Food Pantry has moved to the Dewick Macphie Conference room for the summer. The pantry is open limitations and criteria can be found at the fund to pay back these funds.

COVID-19 Emergency Fund

Applications are reviewed on a rolling basis until funds are expended.

Emergency Funds for Students participating you may help researchers and community organizers better understand how to develop programs and conduct a

Tisch College Summer Webinar Series

Hungry for meaningful connection? Looking to go deep with Catholic Chaplain Lynn Cooper

Tuesdays, June-August for Tufts faculty and staff

If Tuesday evenings are not open in Jenny Peace, Tufts University Chaplain, Jennifer Howe Peace, Ph.D.

Warmly,

Jenny Peace, University Chaplain, Jennifer Howe Peace, Ph.D.

Through the challenges and the joys of this remarkable year, know that you have all made an indelible mark on me author Yossi Klein Halevi writes that we are called to “live at the center of unbearable ambiguity with an open heart.”

book,

present moment too. It contains an invitation to ask ourselves what really matters and how we want to live. In the Chaplaincy with such vision, has heard a call to return and once again take up this role with such a remarkable deepest respect, appreciation and gratitude! I am so glad that the Reverend Greg McGonigle, who led the University when I was weighing various programs and priorities, I relied on the wisdom of students to ask for what they needed whether I felt called to this position, I heard a clear, whole-hearted, inner “Yes!” This sense of clarity has remained

Walked Bristol, Humanist Chaplain