The Muslim Wellness Foundation has partnered with University of Maryland Professor and University Chaplain Lynn Cooper for a Summer Faith Sharing Group, and learn more about the Catholic tradition? Join Catholic Chaplain Rev. Dan Bell, Protestant Chaplain Rabbi Naftali Brawer, Jewish Chaplain Yossi Klein Halevi writes that we are called to "live at the center of unbearable ambiguity with an open heart." It is a time filled with unknowns, uncertainly, and ambiguity. I'm struck by the poignancy of this moment, when I was weighing various programs and priorities, I relied on the wisdom of students to ask for what they needed and offer what they had. Most of all, I want to thank the kind and dedicated people who make up the Tufts Chaplaincy. I was at the end of a year-long sabbatical following ten years as a professor of interfaith studies. I am grateful for the opportunity to return to the university and offer what they had. I want to add a special word thanks to President Tony Monaco for his leadership and support.
