Supporting dynamic programs at Tufts University in religious, spiritual, ethical, and cultural life is easy and vital to our community.

Support the University Chaplaincy

About the University Chaplaincy Enews

Tradition: Wicca/Paganism

Friday, 6.19.2020

Martyrdom of Guru Arjan Dev Ji

Tuesday, 6.16.2020

Roman Catholic and Protestant Christians often observe Pentecost on a different date, but for Orthodox Christians.

Tradition: Christianity-Orthodox

Shavuot

Celebration of the harvest of first fruits and commemorates the giving of the Torah and Commandments at Mount Sinai.

Tradition: Christianity-Protestant, Christianity-Roman Catholic

Tradition: Christianity-Orthodox

Temple Sinai Director of Education, Heidi Smith Hyde at Education, at chaplaincy@tufts.edu

Part-time job as a Youth Organizer with Temple Sinai in Brookline, MA

Hours are on Sundays. Remote work is possible, with the expectation of a transition to in-person eventually.

Applications will be accepted on a rolling basis, reviewed every week; funds are limited.

Grants will be awarded from any amount needed up to $3,000 to support payments, the purchase of materials, and supplies, and any other resources required for the successful implementation of the projects. Students can work with Catholic Chaplain Lynn Cooper about grateful living and letter-writing, Muslim Chaplain Abdul-Malik about creative connecting, Harvard Divinity School calendar

Harvard Divinity School. To see more upcoming religious holidays and festivals, please follow the link to the Harvard Divinity School calendar.

The COVID-19 crisis has created significant financial hardship for individuals and families around the world, and Tufts is grateful for the support of our alumni, students, and friends. The Muslim Wellness Foundation has partnered with University of Maryland Professor Abdul-Malik Merchant, Muslim Chaplain on our website to find bios and additional information.

Events and Purchasing, and more. Any employee can attend any of the sessions by registering on the Office of Career Services website.

Nutrition, and building and maintaining connections despite social distancing.

Tufts community generally during the COVID-19 pandemic. The series, Navigating the Pandemic: Knowledge, Resilience, Civic Purpose and Engagement, include: Catholic Social Teaching, Spirituality, Hungry for meaningful connection? Looking to go deep or mind. You can go to the Tisch College website to find bios and additional information.

In addition, the federally funded Tufts Food Rescue Collaborative

email chaplaincy@tufts.edu

In my work here, I have had the privilege of meeting many people and hearing their stories. I have learned so much from them and been inspired by them.

This semester, the University Chaplaincy team offered short

Open Zoom Farewell

For the latest updates, follow Tufts Food Rescue Collaborative on Instagram.

As the chaplain for the community of students, faculty, staff, and visitors, I have been able to witness the resilience and strength of the Tufts community in the face of challenges.

Through the challenges and the joys of this remarkable year, know that you have all made an indelible mark on me and I will always be grateful. May we each find the courage to live with an open heart, even in the midst of

This semester, the University Chaplaincy team offered short

Open Zoom Farewell

For the latest updates, follow Tufts Food Rescue Collaborative on Instagram.

As the chaplain for the community of students, faculty, staff, and visitors, I have been able to witness the resilience and strength of the Tufts community in the face of challenges.

Through the challenges and the joys of this remarkable year, know that you have all made an indelible mark on me and I will always be grateful. May we each find the courage to live with an open heart, even in the midst of