Kofun Mania with the Japan America Society of Chicago

Some history buffs in Japan are obsessed with ancient tombs called kofun, built from the third to the fifth centuries. This talk will briefly introduce their history before turning to the ways that fans devote time and economic resources to travel, tours, festivals, and media devoted to kofun. Some cute and novel kofun-themed goods and food items will also be discussed.

Summer Screenings with Cinema/Chicago

Cinema/Chicago will be showing the Japanese film Asako I & II through the Summer Screenings event.

Living in Osaka, Asako falls madly in love. The object of her affections, Baku, is passionate, restless, and hard to pin-down. One day, he wanders right out of her life. Years later, living in Tokyo, Asako encounters Ryohei—a kind, respectable businessman and, mysteriously, Baku’s spitting image. What follows is an intoxicating tale told between two cities (Osaka and Tokyo) and a mesmerizing puzzle of mistaken identities, lingering loves, and passions at cross purposes.

Akiko Ike: Boro Chiku-Chiku

The Wisconsin Museum of Quilts & Fiber Arts (WMQFA) presents Akiko Ike: Boro Chiku-Chiku, the artist's first-ever solo museum exhibition in the United States. Ike is a renowned textile artist, teacher, and gallery owner from Niigata, Japan. Using remnants of indigo-dyed cloth and old work clothes, she transforms found cloth by stitching with a strong thread in a manner she calls "chiku-chiku." "Chiku-chiku" is the onomatopoeic word Ike has coined to describe the sound her broad needle makes as it runs into and out of the cloth.

IN-PERSON

On display until Sunday, August 27, 2023

The Wisconsin Museum of Quilts & Fiber Arts

The 30th Biennale International Sculpture Competition

UBE Biennale (International Sculpture Competition) is the Japan's first, large-scale outdoorsculpture exhibition launched in 1961 at the initiative of citizens in search for an improved post-war cityscape and richness of mind. Since its inception, the project played a significant role as the frontier of "urban revitalization through art." For the 30th exhibition, 15 full-scale works and 30 models of the winning works will be on display, followed by the permanent installation of winning works of Grand Prize and UBE Corporation Prize in public spaces across the city. Overseas applications are accepted.

Applications are due by 5pm on Sunday, September 10, 2023

Visit the website for more information.

JET PROGRAM ALUMNI TALK ABOUT THEIR EXPERIENCES IN JAPAN

JETAA Talks: July

Our JETAA Talks series features stories from JETAA (JET Program Alumni Association) members in our jurisdiction. This month we connected with Ishikawa Prefecture JET alum Yoshimi Nakamura. Thank you for sharing your story with us, Yoshimi!

Are you a JET alumni from or living in our ten-state jurisdiction who would like to share their Japan experience? Please contact us here with your name, location (in relation to our jurisdiction), JET placement, year(s) you participated on the program, and a small blurb about your time there. We are excited to hear your stories!

THIS MONTH IN JAPAN

文月

fumizuki

文月(Fumizuki), July. Named after the season where rice grows and matures. Its original form was 穂含月 (Hofumizuki), meaning "rice collecting month". Usually, in the current calendar, people collect rice during mid-August to early October so you probably won't see rice farmers collecting rice during this month. It is rather green and beautiful reflecting the bright sunshine.

July 7 is Tanabata or the Star Festival to celebrate the meeting of the deities named Orihime and Hikoboshi. The third Monday of the month is Umi no Hi (Marine Day), commemorating the return of Emperor Meiji to Yokohama port from a boat trip to Hokkaido in 1876.

NOTE FROM THE EDITOR

Dear Subscribers,

Summer is in full effect with the beaming sun, vibrant energy, and fun events taking place throughout the Midwest! We hope that you are taking advantage of this beautiful weather while also staying hydrated and cool.

To all the new participants in the JET Program will be departing for Japan at the end of this month, we wish you all the best of luck and hope that you enjoy your time there!
