The Sewing Labs is holding their semi-annual fundraiser, the FABRIC GRAB! This will be an outside event. We will require face masks and social distancing.

This is always such a fun frenzy of fabric shopping! There will be FREE fabric and almost FREE fabric. Also, there will be CHEAP notions and tools!

We are looking for volunteers to help on Friday, March 19th, Saturday, March 20th, and the following week for post-event organization.

Volunteers will help with set-up, break-down, and fabric organization. During the sale our volunteers also engage our customers during their shopping experience and inform them about The Sewing Labs mission.
