climate change on marginalized and vulnerable groups.

healthcare sustainability and climate justice, which focuses on decreasing the outsized effects of climate-related themes into several organ blocks, including Airways, Blood, and Circulation and "We are rooting our objectives and content in educational theories that will support and foster thus prepares students to treat patients affected by the impacts of climate change. Iverson notes, paradigm, creating a novel, longitudinal, comprehensive climate change and sustainability

Teherani, PhD, Allan Ndovu, MS3, and Taryn Sirias, MS1

support of School of Medicine leadership, nationally, very few medical schools include climate change and its health impacts in their core Current health professional students require training that prepares them for the challenges they

with colleagues across the country and evaluate Club

Cancer and Environmental Health RFA. Joint award with the Helen Diller Comprehensive Cancer building a just and sustainable future for all.

The UCSF climate health community is deeply grateful to Sarah for her tireless dedication to Sustainability. This award facilitates outreach and engagement across UCSF Health. These

Among her many activities promoting climate health efforts, Sarah has recently received a Carbon recommendations for the Biden-Harris transition team. Consider

MS4SF, Sarah has been able to engage in policy advocacy at the national level, including

founding Advocacy Co-Chair for

Medical Students for a Sustainable Future's

Professional

Sarah Schear, fourth-year UCSF medical student, recommends

Ashley McClure, co-founder of Climate Health Now, invites listeners to her latest

Inspiring and Interesting Resources

This free 8 week series will provide evidence-based curriculum on the science of climate change

Climate Change and Human Health Webinar Series

SPRING 2021 SPEAKER SERIES: Climate Change and Health

Families in the 21st Century: How Surgeons Can Learn, Engage and Deliver for their Patients and

UCSF's Katherine Gundling and Chelsea Landolin will present "Surgery Grand Rounds

UCSF's new EaRTH Center faculty and staff are conducting a Mini-Medical School for the Public

and Health. [features guest speaker, Renee Salas, Assistant Professor of Emergency Medicine at Harvard

February 18 | 12-1:30pm PST

Care

The Psychological Impacts of Climate Change: Creating Climate Aware

Therapists

The Pschological Impacts of Climate Change: Creating Climate Aware

Therapists

February 9 | 5:30pm PST

The Pschological Impacts of Climate Change: Creating Climate Aware

Therapists

The Pschological Impacts of Climate Change: Creating Climate Aware

Therapists

among others, making sure we continue to communicate the health emergency of climate change.

Gina Solomon, MD, MPH; Marshall Burke, PhD; Stephanie Holm, MD,

Now, More Than Ever: Movement Building for Climate, Racial, and Health Justice

Migration

disasters and protecting human health and the environment.

burned in California alone. This session will explore the role of climate change in accelerating

March 18 | 2:30-4pm PST

among others, making sure we continue to communicate the health emergency of climate change.

Gina Solomon, MD, MPH; Marshall Burke, PhD; Stephanie Holm, MD,

Now, More Than Ever: Movement Building for Climate, Racial, and Health Justice

Migration

disasters and protecting human health and the environment.

burned in California alone. This session will explore the role of climate change in accelerating

March 18 | 2:30-4pm PST

Among her many activities promoting climate health efforts, Sarah has recently received a Carbon

recommendations for the Biden-Harris transition team. Consider

MS4SF, Sarah has been able to engage in policy advocacy at the national level, including

founding Advocacy Co-Chair for

Medical Students for a Sustainable Future's

Professional

Sarah Schear, fourth-year UCSF medical student, recommends

Ashley McClure, co-founder of Climate Health Now, invites listeners to her latest

Inspiring and Interesting Resources

This free 8 week series will provide evidence-based curriculum on the science of climate change

Climate Change and Human Health Webinar Series

SPRING 2021 SPEAKER SERIES: Climate Change and Health

Families in the 21st Century: How Surgeons Can Learn, Engage and Deliver for their Patients and

UCSF's Katherine Gundling and Chelsea Landolin will present "Surgery Grand Rounds

UCSF's new EaRTH Center faculty and staff are conducting a Mini-Medical School for the Public

and Health. [features guest speaker, Renee Salas, Assistant Professor of Emergency Medicine at Harvard

February 18 | 12-1:30pm PST

Care

The Psychological Impacts of Climate Change: Creating Climate Aware

Therapists

The Pschological Impacts of Climate Change: Creating Climate Aware

Therapists

February 9 | 5:30pm PST

The Pschological Impacts of Climate Change: Creating Climate Aware

Therapists

The Pschological Impacts of Climate Change: Creating Climate Aware

Therapists

among others, making sure we continue to communicate the health emergency of climate change.

Gina Solomon, MD, MPH; Marshall Burke, PhD; Stephanie Holm, MD,

Now, More Than Ever: Movement Building for Climate, Racial, and Health Justice

Migration

disasters and protecting human health and the environment.

burned in California alone. This session will explore the role of climate change in accelerating

March 18 | 2:30-4pm PST

among others, making sure we continue to communicate the health emergency of climate change.

Gina Solomon, MD, MPH; Marshall Burke, PhD; Stephanie Holm, MD,