An Attitude of Gratitude

Involvement is holding several events and series that are open to all students.

Overview of Dates and Process Information

Applications for both the North Campus Traditional Residence Halls and the South Campus Apartment Applications are due by the stated date.

Student Conduct Corner

As your student gets involved on campus, stay in touch about what they are doing and how they are navigating the group dynamics. Remember, involvement in a student group, athletic team, or student organization should never cross a line where it poses a danger to your student's physical and/or mental health.

If you have any questions, please contact Student Health Services at 540-731-8911 or email healthservices@wcupa.edu. Students can also visit the Student Health Services website for more information on immunizations and schedules.

A Message from President Fiorentino

It's common for new year's resolutions (or goals) to phase out by the second month of the year. In February, students begin looking at fall grades and begin focus on the semester. Since December, they have also had time to look at fall grades and begin focus on the semester. It's perfect timing for students to consider their semester goals and have them set their academic legacy, and to renew West Chester University's commitment to upholding the principles and teachings he espoused.

Encourage your student to check out the writing center.

A Message from Dr. Davenport, V.P. of Student Affairs

It's not too late to make a difference in your student's college experience. Encourage your student to participate in Campus Involvement Opportunities. The Office of Parent and Family Relations provides expertise to me and other campus leaders to ensure that we continue to advance our commitment to inclusivity, service, and academic excellence.

The Office for Diversity, Equity and Inclusion provides expertise to me and other campus leaders to ensure that we continue to advance our commitment to inclusivity, service, and academic excellence.
