ANP provides custom M+D fixtures for an exciting new breakfast restaurant in Andover, Massachusetts!

CRACK'D Kitchen & Coffee is a culinary driven gourmet breakfast eatery located in Andover, Massachusetts. The design team showed interest in using our M+D Magnolia fixture for the interior of their new restaurant.

Our team at ANP Lighting came up with a clever way to modify our original Magnolia fixture into a custom fixture that mimicked a cracked egg shell. This one of a kind look, combined with soft, lensed LED lighting provides a comfortable environment for the restaurant's patrons to enjoy in a truly unique and interesting way.
