This email was sent to .

See this email
Manage

Weekly, monthly or drop-in for services!
Each student is paired with a graduate-level student consultant. Students can choose to meet weekly, personal success at WCU. We work holistically with students by providing

Card.
Card.

Already have a classic Ram Card) until Dec. 13, after which structures will also be converted to the new Ram Card.

RamBucks, and to use RamPrint. Within the year, access to the Student Rec Center and parking expediting entries and transactions. Students need their Ram Cards to access RamBucks and their Students.

Off-campus and commuter students as well as graduate

New and transfer students have already been issued the Office of Wellness Promotion can assist your student in learning more about vaping and can connect them with local resources if they currently use and are interested in quitting.

While the recent media attention to this topic has sparked interest in learning more about e-cigarettes and vaping, we would encourage you to

56.4%

According to the 2019 "Think About It" program completed by 2,387 new WCU students,

The 2020-2021 FAFSA is LIVE

Reading and Writing Days

Returning Student On-Campus Housing Process

Student Success Coaching

A Message from President Fiorentino

Important Dates and Deadlines

Tips from the Office of Student Conduct

The chemical exposure causing lung injuries linked with e-cigarette (including vape) product use is still unknown

Vaping is unsafe for youth, pregnant women, adolescents, and adults who currently do not use nicotine, cannabinoid (CBD) oils, and/or tetrahydrocannabinol (THC). Users inhale the aerosol

The Office of Wellness Promotion can assist your student in learning more about vaping and can connect them with local resources if they currently use and are interested in quitting.

While the recent media attention to this topic has sparked interest in learning more about e-cigarettes and vaping, we would encourage you to

56.4%

According to the 2019 "Think About It" program completed by 2,387 new WCU students,

The 2020-2021 FAFSA is LIVE

Reading and Writing Days

Returning Student On-Campus Housing Process

Student Success Coaching

A Message from President Fiorentino

Important Dates and Deadlines

Tips from the Office of Student Conduct

The chemical exposure causing lung injuries linked with e-cigarette (including vape) product use is still unknown

Vaping is unsafe for youth, pregnant women, adolescents, and adults who currently do not use nicotine, cannabinoid (CBD) oils, and/or tetrahydrocannabinol (THC). Users inhale the aerosol

The Office of Wellness Promotion can assist your student in learning more about vaping and can connect them with local resources if they currently use and are interested in quitting.

While the recent media attention to this topic has sparked interest in learning more about e-cigarettes and vaping, we would encourage you to

56.4%

According to the 2019 "Think About It" program completed by 2,387 new WCU students,