To avoid a judicial hold a student needs to:

1. Meet the deadlines:
   - October 1 - Due date for fall semester
   - November 9 - Due date for mid-term grades
   - November 26 - Due date for final grades
   - December 9 - Due date for final exam

2. Begin the sanctions process:
   - Students will be considered for extensions if they experience difficulty completing their sanction(s).
   - Students can submit a formal request for an extension form the Office of Student Conduct.

Tips from the Office of Student Conduct:

- Vaping: When the Smoke Clears
  - Vaping, a product included in the category of e-cigarettes, has been a topic attracting national media.
  - While e-cigarettes have been marketed as a tool to help people quit cigarette use, they are not safe for youth, pregnant women, adolescents, and adults who currently do not use tobacco products.
  - Vaping is unsafe for youth, pregnant women, adolescents, and adults who currently do not use tobacco products.

-#RamFam Love,
  - Parents are encouraged to reach out to their students to let them know you are thinking about them.
  - It's important to support your students during this time.
  - Let them know you are concerned for their health and well-being.
