2017 Faculty Exhibition through October 8

A Sense of What It Could Be

Maggie Denk-Leigh
"A Sense of What It Could Be"

A tradition that spans more than eight decades, the Faculty Exhibition is a celebration of art, design, and their makers. The show runs through October 8 in CIA's Reinberger Gallery. We hope you will also visit the Ann and Norman Roulet Student + Alumni Gallery to see Dan Tranberg: So vivid. So luminous. So fluorescent., an exhibition celebrating our beloved colleague, teacher, and friend, his contributions to our community and our lives.

Video call for Tranberg Memorial

On October 13, the Cleveland Institute of Art will host a memorial celebrating the life of our late colleague, teacher and friend, Dan Tranberg. A video compilation will be included. Be a part of the video tribute by recording your thoughts and memories of Dan and sending us a digital file. We will do our best to include all footage in the final video. Questions? Email Lane Cooper at lcooper@cia.edu.

To submit your video clip, follow these instructions:

- Submissions must be no longer than 60 seconds.
- Go as low-tech as you need. Footage from smart phones or your computer will work just fine, but please speak clearly.

Send your completed file by September 28 to Rich Sarian via the file-sharing site wetransfer.com. It's free, and you don't need to create an account. Just call up wetransfer.com, and input Rich's email address as the recipient: rsarian@cia.edu. You'll have to include your own email address. Upload is simple.

Have no clue as to how to make a video? You may stop by the Ann and Norman Roulet Gallery at CIA at during the following times, and we'll help you record your tribute:

- Tuesday, September 12, 11am-12pm
- Thursday, September 14, 11am-2pm
- Monday, September 18, 12-2pm
