March 2022 Newsletter

A Note from Parent to Parent

As we move into the month of March, I feel hopeful. Hopeful for warmer weather, hopeful for mandates being lifted, hopeful for families getting out and seeing one another face to face again. March will be full of lots of information for families looking into transition for their young adults with the Transition Expo taking place on March 30th. This is for families who have middle school and older students who are interested in learning about what resources are available in our community after high school. I encourage you to attend, even if your child is not quite there yet, it is good to attend and learn things. We will also celebrate World Down Syndrome Day with a Rock Your Socks dance party at the YMCA.

We have lots of activities planned, but if you need one on one support or need help with paperwork or just need a listening ear, please call us. We would love to hear from you.

Sincerely,
Angie and Ysabel

Note: NEW WASHINGTON ADULT GUARDIANSHIP LAW

A new adult guardianship law became effective on January 1st, 2022 in Washington state and affects new and existing guardianships. These changes bring a lot of questions and information to learn on how it may affect you and your loved one. There are resources provided by Washington Courts.

Information & Resources

On March 3, at 12:00 pm, the ARC of Washington is hosting an informative Zoom webinar on the changes to the guardianship laws in Washington state.
