FACULTY DIRECTOR MESSAGE

As a Stanford University faculty director, I take a personal responsibility for our duty of care to our community. I hope you all had a safe and happy Thanksgiving holiday. This has been a challenging year due to the COVID-19 pandemic. We have worked with our community partners and policy makers to address the dual challenge of obesity and food insecurity. I want to thank all of our colleagues, community organizations, and our students who have stepped up to support our community during this difficult time.

Shearer, and Ashley Palmer Steveson.

Please watch the link below to join our 19th Annual Community Health Symposium.

Our office will be closed from December 14th - January 1st.

Please stay tuned for more information and all upcoming OCE events.

FACULTY DIRECTOR MESSAGE

We received funding for a state wide effort against COVID-19 (Share, Trust, Organize, Partner: the COVID-19 California Community Engagement Alliance Against COVID-19 (CEAL) | STOP COVID-19 CA (Share, Trust, Organize, Partner: the COVID-19 California Community Engagement Alliance). As part of this effort, OCE, along with Stanford Cancer Institute: Community Engagement & Outreach, have assembled six (6) panels of leading experts in the fields of infectious disease, public health, law, healthcare, public health, and education. Bringing, together, this panel of experts will discuss the COVID-19 Vaccine Readiness and Behaviors to help advance science.

Please join us for our 7th community town hall designed for the local and regional community to provide information from the COVID-19 Research Registry. Join the COVID-19 Research Registry to participate in COVID-19 related research or clinical trials.

Help us spread the word.

We applaud local community-based organizations in their efforts to improve the health and well being of our local communities. We applaud our community partners and faculty mentors, they are supporting the students with nine (9) new fellows! Together, with their program with nine (9) new fellows! Together, with their
