Dear Colleague,

I'm just back from Ecuador where Jane, Jenna and I spent 12 fabulous days exploring the mainland and Galapagos Islands with Enchanted Expeditions. My highlights included snorkeling at Española and Bartolome Islands and horseback riding in the Andes. There's so much to see and do in this tiny country, so I invite you to watch our webinar here and start planning your dream journey to Ecuador.

For those of you with bookings to Costa Rica, the good news is that effective August 1st, vaccinated people are no longer required to have travel insurance to enter the Central American country.

We're still waiting for information about borders reopening in Argentina, Chile & Uruguay. But we're very optimistic that the news will come sooner than later so that the 2021-22 travel season at the bottom end of South America will happen. Stay tuned!

If you have clients who aren't ready to travel abroad yet, no worries. The U.S. and Canada have amazing landscapes and activities. We're hoping your "Domestic Vacation Wish List" includes Canyon Madness Ranch in northeast New Mexico, with its range of outdoor adventures and outstanding views over the Canadian River Canyon.

Not sure about you, but I'm already planning my Festive Season short break. If you need some inspiration, this newsletter should help you pick the destination of your choice and start dreaming of a New Year's Eve celebration somewhere in this beautiful world.

Enjoy the read and plan a trip!
