IVC's First DEIA Day

In recognition of Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, and Accessibility \(DEIA\) Awareness Month, IVC held the college's first DEIA Day on April 14. There were 108 attendees for the half-day event, which was held both in-person and virtually. The event featured conversations with Asian American Pacific Islander scholar

Dr. Robert Teranishi, Native American Studies Professor Dr. Heather Daly, the Guided Pathways Humanities Completion Team, and a panel of students who shared personal and touching stories about their lives and experiences at IVC.

If you missed the event, a recording of the presentations will be available soon and will be sent out via email. See Photos »

Puente Program Hosts Mendoza Family Distinguished Lecture Series

IVC's Puente Program hosted the first Mendoza Family Distinguished Lecture Series at the Writing Center on April 12. Guest speaker Gustavo Arellano spoke about "A Mexican in Orange County: Thoughts on a Life and Career in La Naranja." He spoke candidly about his life in Orange County, where the best foods are in the OC, and his experience as a writer for the OC Weekly. If you would like to watch his inspiring lecture, see the Instagram Live posted by IVC Puente Program. See Photos »

Men's Volleyball Team Wraps Regular Season With Big Road Victory

With Orange Coast (OCC) already having clinched at least a share of the Orange Empire Conference (OEC) title, the Irvine Valley men's volleyball team needed a victory last Friday on the road to keep pace. The Lasers did just that, beating Santiago Canyon to take their place alongside OCC at the top of the OEC standings and earn a co-championship. The win also secured the first conference title for first-year head coach Rory Jones. The team hosts Moorpark on Friday, April 21 at 6 pm in the first round of the state playoffs. Admission is free. BUILDING ON THE BASICS: IVC COMPUTING COURSES CREATE FOUNDATION FOR SUCCESS

When it comes to launching a life in a new country, basic language skills can speak volumes. Lingyi ‘Lynn’ Zhou knew, in order to build a better future for her family, she’d need to start with a sturdy foundation. For the determined immigrant, who made the move from China to the United States in 2014, that meant gaining confidence, expanding her tech skills, and most critically, improving her English.

That’s when Zhou learned about the abundance of opportunities at Irvine Valley College supporting non-native English-speaking students. Thanks to the noncredit Adult English as a Second Language (AESL) courses, students like Zhou can learn English at their own pace, whether they’re at a beginner, intermediate, or advanced level.
