How to be a Star at GVSU: Performing Arts Organizations on Campus

Feeling expressive? Interested in the stage or spotlight? To celebrate World Theater Day on March 27, we are highlighting some student organizations at Grand Valley that are based around the performing arts. From improv to dance to a cappella to instrumental music, there are plenty of opportunities to perform your heart out on campus!

Put your "art" into a performing arts organization!

Laker Tips & Tricks: Scheduling Your Classes

Scheduling classes can be a challenge: which classes should you take and when, how early in the morning do you want to get up, and how do you know if you have a class downtown? Luckily, there are many ways to work out your schedule and plan which classes you should take next year. Not convinced? Here's how you can make the scheduling process easier and ensure that you get the class schedule of your dreams.
