Honey W. Nashman Center for Civic Engagement and Public Service

WHAT'S NEXT

CIVIC ENGAGEMENT AND PUBLIC SERVICE

Just because you do not take an interest in politics doesn't mean politics won't take an interest in you.

---

COMMUNITY OPPORTUNITIES

LAST CHANCE TO APPLY!

ACADEMIC RESEARCH REWIND

Sustained engagement in a field of study with a focus on research. Students will conduct research in the classroom and share findings in a civic engagement session. This service experience is designed for sophomores and juniors.

Applications due: Friday, October 16!

nr@GW.edu

The Office of Research

Design Workshops

The Office of Research & Engagement is partnering with local arts organizations to create three design workshops for local arts organizations. Attendees will have the opportunity to participate in a 3.5-hour design sprint to facilitate a design thinking workshop with local arts organizations.

Presented by Will Brummett, Program Manager, Co-Curricular Service Learning Program

Wednesday, October 21, 2020 - 7pm (EST) via Zoom

ASPIRE: Claiming Your Values in Volatile Times

This ethical reasoning workshop will explore the importance of naming and claiming your most important values in a time of social upheaval and uncertainty. This workshop is part of the Civic Conversations Series presented by the Civic Engagement Center at George Washington University.

Presented by John T. Garrard, Director of Civic Engagement

Wednesday, October 21st, 5:00pm - 6:00pm EST

Sunday, October 25th, 4:00pm - 5:00pm EST

Honey W. Nashman Center, 22nd St & G St NW

ASPIRE: The Power of Words

This workshop will focus on how words are the building blocks of discourse. Participants will reflect on the power of language and the impact that words have on society. This workshop is presented by the Civic Engagement Center at George Washington University.

Presented by John T. Garrard, Director of Civic Engagement

Wednesday, October 21st, 5:00pm - 6:00pm EST

Sunday, October 25th, 4:00pm - 5:00pm EST

Honey W. Nashman Center, 22nd St & G St NW

The Office of Research & Engagement is partnering with local arts organizations to create three design workshops for local arts organizations. Attendees will have the opportunity to participate in a 3.5-hour design sprint to facilitate a design thinking workshop with local arts organizations.

Presented by Will Brummett, Program Manager, Co-Curricular Service Learning Program

Wednesday, October 21, 2020 - 7pm (EST) via Zoom

Open Jobs at Nashman Center

Civic Engagement and Public Service

Located within the Nashman Center, this position provides opportunities to work with a diverse team of community partners and offers a unique opportunity to gain experience in the field of civic engagement.

Open Jobs At Nashman Center

Sustainability Session

This workshop will focus on designing creative solutions to address the specific social issue for that design sprint. Participants will work in teams to brainstorm ideas and create prototypes for potential solutions.

Presented by Will Brummett, Program Manager, Co-Curricular Service Learning Program

Wednesday, October 21, 2020 - 7pm (EST) via Zoom

Innovation and Entrepreneurship Series

Two-hour, cross-cultural and interdisciplinary skill-building workshop that focuses on key entrepreneurial concepts and practices to create new solutions to combat bias and advance diversity, equity, & inclusion.

Presented by: Alicia Garza, co-founder of #BlackLivesMatter

Alicia Garza, co-creator of #BlackLivesMatter

The Purpose of Power

This ethical reasoning workshop will explore the importance of naming and claiming your most important values in a time of social upheaval and uncertainty. This workshop is part of the Civic Conversations Series presented by the Civic Engagement Center at George Washington University.

Presented by John T. Garrard, Director of Civic Engagement

Wednesday, October 21st, 5:00pm - 6:00pm EST

Sunday, October 25th, 4:00pm - 5:00pm EST

Honey W. Nashman Center, 22nd St & G St NW

Claiming Your Values in Volatile Times

This ethical reasoning workshop will explore the importance of naming and claiming your most important values in a time of social upheaval and uncertainty. This workshop is part of the Civic Conversations Series presented by the Civic Engagement Center at George Washington University.

Presented by John T. Garrard, Director of Civic Engagement

Wednesday, October 21st, 5:00pm - 6:00pm EST

Sunday, October 25th, 4:00pm - 5:00pm EST

Honey W. Nashman Center, 22nd St & G St NW

ASPIRE: The Power of Words

This workshop will focus on how words are the building blocks of discourse. Participants will reflect on the power of language and the impact that words have on society. This workshop is presented by the Civic Engagement Center at George Washington University.

Presented by John T. Garrard, Director of Civic Engagement

Wednesday, October 21st, 5:00pm - 6:00pm EST

Sunday, October 25th, 4:00pm - 5:00pm EST

Honey W. Nashman Center, 22nd St & G St NW

UPCOMING EVENTS

Design Workshops

The Office of Research & Engagement is partnering with local arts organizations to create three design workshops for local arts organizations. Attendees will have the opportunity to participate in a 3.5-hour design sprint to facilitate a design thinking workshop with local arts organizations.

Presented by Will Brummett, Program Manager, Co-Curricular Service Learning Program

Wednesday, October 21, 2020 - 7pm (EST) via Zoom

ASPIRE: Claiming Your Values in Volatile Times

This ethical reasoning workshop will explore the importance of naming and claiming your most important values in a time of social upheaval and uncertainty. This workshop is part of the Civic Conversations Series presented by the Civic Engagement Center at George Washington University.

Presented by John T. Garrard, Director of Civic Engagement

Wednesday, October 21st, 5:00pm - 6:00pm EST

Sunday, October 25th, 4:00pm - 5:00pm EST

Honey W. Nashman Center, 22nd St & G St NW

ASPIRE: The Power of Words

This workshop will focus on how words are the building blocks of discourse. Participants will reflect on the power of language and the impact that words have on society. This workshop is presented by the Civic Engagement Center at George Washington University.

Presented by John T. Garrard, Director of Civic Engagement

Wednesday, October 21st, 5:00pm - 6:00pm EST

Sunday, October 25th, 4:00pm - 5:00pm EST

Honey W. Nashman Center, 22nd St & G St NW

COMMUNITY SPOTLIGHT

GW All Access: Civic Engagement and Public Service

The purpose of the GW All Access initiative is to provide opportunities for the GW community throughout the fall semester.

GW All Access

The center will continue facilitating virtual service experiences throughout the spring semester. The service experiences will consist of pre-service education in the fall and service throughout the spring semester. The service experiences that consist of pre-service education in the fall and service throughout the spring semester.

Last Chance to apply

Alternative Breaks

Applications are due Friday, October 16!

To continue receiving our emails, add us to your address book.

This email was sent to you.

Washington, DC | 20052 United States
837 22nd St NW
View this email
Got this as a forward?
Manage