Claiming Your Values in Volatile Times

October 21 | 7:00pm ET

The George Washington University and Politics and Prose Live! will host Alicia Garza, co-creator of #BlackLivesMatter, in a moderated discussion and live question and answer session with participants. Ms. Garza will engage in a special 3.5-hour design sprint to facilitate a cross-cultural and interdisciplinary skill-building workshop that focuses on key entrepreneurial concepts and practices to create new solutions to combat bias and advance diversity, equity, and inclusion.

The Purpose of Power

Wednesday, October 21, 2020 - 7pm (EST) via Zoom

Presented by Will Brummett, Program Manager, Co-Curricular Service. This ethical reasoning workshop will explore the importance of naming and claiming your most important values in a time of social upheaval and uncertainty. Participants will work in small groups to discuss the question, “What are the most important values that guide your life?” The facilitator will help participants call to action and explore the ethical reasoning implications of these values.
