A Check-in from Your Friends at World Citizen!

Congratulations America!!

Juneteenth is now a National Holiday to be a reminder of Freedom and Justice. Juneteenth blends "June" and "nineteenth" in honor of the day that the last Black people in America learned of their freedom from slavery. Despite painful parts of America's History, we can change. Our ideals can be a reality for everyone. Yes, "Respect

Diversity."

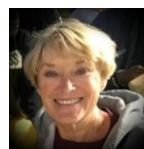

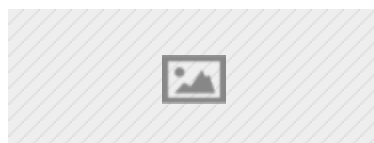

World Citizen is planning three opportunities this coming fall for involvement in learning more about anti-racism to promote the Peace Action, "Respect Diversity." Visit our website in August for upcoming details. In addition, World Citizen will sponsor short segments on our website and social media called "Healing Habitats with Hannah." This opportunity for all ages will focus on the Peace action to "Protect the Environment."

We also plan to feature short interviews with our Peace Ambassadors to share how they promote and engage in the Five Peace Actions. We know by sharing ideas and actions we can all do better. To know better is to do better.

As I read on a billboard, "In a world where we can choose to be anything, choose to be kind." Following the Five Peace Actions is being kind. Kind to ourselves, to others, and to the world.

Peace Will Prevail,

Kathy Millington, Executive Director
