NEWMAN CIVIC FELLOWSHIP

Newman Civic Fellowship

The Newman Civic Fellowship, sponsored by the Honey W. Nashman Center for Civic Engagement and Public Service, is a one-year award recognizing and rewarding college and university students who have demonstrated a commitment for change through service, activism, and leadership. The 2021-2022 Newman Civic Fellowship will be awarded to students who have made significant contributions to their community or social change over the past year. The fellowship includes a $10,000 cash award and support for travel to the annual Service-Learning Conference in Chicago. Nominees for the Newman Civic Fellowship must be current college students who meet the eligibility requirements.

Nominations open until Monday, January 18, 2021. Learn more about the Newman Civic Fellowship and how to nominate student leaders who are making a difference in their communities.

If you know a student who is making a difference in your community, please nominate them for the Newman Civic Fellowship. The deadline for nominations is Monday, January 18, 2021.

Wishing you loving and peaceful holidays and a healthy and enlightening new year.

One thing that’s making me happy now -- for so many reasons -- is that the coronavirus pandemic has never been a reason to stop giving. And be of help wherever you can.

As the days go by it is easy to forget how much you have accomplished and how much we have done together. Remember the good stuff. As you reflect on the past year and talk with family and friends, remember to congratulate yourself and your loved ones on your resilience and your persistence. Now is the time to rest, reflect and remind ourselves that we are resilient!

Here we are at the close of a very challenging year and semester. Hang in there, you’re almost done!

As you reflect on the past year and talk with family and friends, remember to congratulate yourself and your loved ones on your resilience and your persistence. Now is the time to rest, reflect and remind ourselves that we are resilient!
