Clipping

It is okay to feel hopeful and to take a deep breath. As the days go by it is easy to forget how much you have accomplished and how much help. And be of help wherever you can.

As you reflect on the past year and talk with family and friends, remember to always choose to reflect and not be in despair. As the days of the year slip away, you have the choice to reflect or forget. You have the choice to reflect on your life and the good that you have accomplished.
