National Voter Education Week

GW VOTES

National Voter Education Week

Wednesday, October 7 | 10am-12pm EST
On the Ground 2020: Voting Rights Rundown Virtual Panel
Join the Clinton Global Initiative University and Chelsea Clinton, Vice Chair of the Clinton Foundation, for a moderated discussion with alumni of the Up to Us program, about the important role that young people can play in reinventing civic engagement during the COVID-19 pandemic.

Learn more and register here

Pack Your Bags and Vote

Friday, October 9 | 7pm EST
Join the American Constitution Society, ACLU, and Black Law Student Association for a moderated discussion with alumni of the Up to Us program, about the important role that young people can play in reinventing civic engagement during the COVID-19 pandemic. This event is sponsored by GW Law's American Constitution Society, ACLU, and Black Law Student Association.

Register

Race, the Right to Vote, and Voter Suppression Panel

Thursday, October 8 | 1pm EST
Open to all undergraduate students, the panel will have four service projects, with each project offering unique opportunities to engage with specific communities and issues. The projects will be led by Nashman Center staff and faculty members, who will facilitate discussions and guide participants in their efforts.

Wednesday, October 7 | 10am-12pm EST
Join the Clinton Global Initiative University and Chelsea Clinton, Vice Chair of the Clinton Foundation, for a moderated discussion with alumni of the Up to Us program, about the important role that young people can play in reinventing civic engagement during the COVID-19 pandemic.

Register

Wednesday, October 7 | 10am-12pm EST
Reinventing Civic Engagement for the Next Generation of Leaders

Register

One Vote Film Screening Couch Party

Join us during National Voter Education Week to turnout the vote this election from the comfort of your own couch while watching a movie! Couch Partiers are external events sponsored by the Clinton Global Initiative University.

Check out our story highlights on Instagram template and share with us what your vote means!

National Voter Education Week

HONEY W. NASHMAN CENTER FOR CIVIC ENGAGEMENT AND PUBLIC SERVICE

GW Votes

NATIONAL VOTER EDUCATION WEEK

Wednesday, October 7 | 10am-12pm EST
Open to all undergraduate students, the panel will have four service projects, with each project offering unique opportunities to engage with specific communities and issues. The projects will be led by Nashman Center staff and faculty members, who will facilitate discussions and guide participants in their efforts.

Wednesday, October 7 | 10am-12pm EST
Join the Clinton Global Initiative University and Chelsea Clinton, Vice Chair of the Clinton Foundation, for a moderated discussion with alumni of the Up to Us program, about the important role that young people can play in reinventing civic engagement during the COVID-19 pandemic.

Register

One Vote Film Screening Couch Party

Join us during National Voter Education Week to turnout the vote this election from the comfort of your own couch while watching a movie! Couch Partiers are external events sponsored by the Clinton Global Initiative University.

Check out our story highlights on Instagram template and share with us what your vote means!

Voters are more engaged than ever, but nearly half expect to face barriers to voting (Pew Research Center, October 2020). On October 9, at 7pm EST, the American Constitution Society, ACLU, and Black Law Student Association will host a moderated discussion with alumni of the Up to Us program, about the important role that young people can play in reinventing civic engagement during the COVID-19 pandemic.

Register

Voter Enfranchisement and Civil Rights Workshop

Wednesday, October 7 | 10am-12pm EST
Sponsored by the GW Law's American Constitution Society, ACLU, and Black Law Student Association. The event will feature a panel of experts discussing the latest developments in voting rights and civil rights, and how they are impacting communities and individuals. The panelists will discuss strategies to build an inclusive economy, promote health equity, and support student leaders.

Register

On the Ground 2020: Voting Rights Rundown

Wednesday, October 7 | 10am-12pm EST
Join the American Constitution Society, ACLU, and Black Law Student Association for a moderated discussion with alumni of the Up to Us program, about the important role that young people can play in reinventing civic engagement during the COVID-19 pandemic.

Register

WashPost: We reformed our election campaign to fight info wars.

Friday, October 9 | 10am-12pm EST
Join the association of Curriculum and Pedagogy Students (ACAPS) for a teach-in on Anti-Racism and education.

Register

Friday, October 9 | 10am-12pm EST
Join the Clinton Global Initiative University and Chelsea Clinton, Vice Chair of the Clinton Foundation, for a moderated discussion with alumni of the Up to Us program, about the important role that young people can play in reinventing civic engagement during the COVID-19 pandemic.

Register

Panelists will discuss strategies to build an inclusive economy, promote health equity, and support student leaders.

Register

October 8 | 11:00am ET
Join CGI-U for a conversations with President Bill Clinton, Chelsea Clinton, and leading topic experts on strategies to build an inclusive economy, promote health equity, and support student leaders.

Register

One Vote Film Screening Couch Party

Join us during National Voter Education Week to turnout the vote this election from the comfort of your own couch while watching a movie! Couch Partiers are external events sponsored by the Clinton Global Initiative University.

Check out our story highlights on Instagram template and share with us what your vote means!

Your vote is your power to choose, to speak up, and to stand with those who support us and each other.