One Vote Film Screening Couch Party

Join us during National Voter Education Week to vote this election from the comfort of your own couch while watching a movie! Couch Partiers are external events sponsored by the Nashman Center for Civic Engagement Project, Campus Vote Project, Student PIRGs, and Vote for Astra.

Your story, your vote.

The event will begin with a virtual theater performance by High School students in Washington, DC. Immediately following the theater there will be a panel and discussion with Dr. Maranda Ward (GWSMHS), Dr. Dwayne Wright (GSEHD) and Dr. Elizabeth Rule (GWCPS).

The panelists will discuss with Dr. Maranda Ward (GWSMHS), Dr. Dwayne Wright (GSEHD) and Dr. Elizabeth Rule (GWCPS) the role that systemic racism plays in schools.

NYC of the play "Default" and follow with a Q&A session with the students about the play's importance in the ongoing conversation about race and systemic racism.

Reinventing Civic Engagement for the Next Generation of Leaders

Join us for a multidisciplinary overview of voter rights, led by an expert panel of GW faculty members. Co-sponsored by GW Votes and Phi Beta Sigma.

When we vote, we take back our power to choose, to speak up, to affect change by focusing on strengthening community partnerships, engaging parents and families, and building capacity in Title I schools and Central Office. VISTA members interested in completing a year of service with AmeriCorps VISTA.
