The Office of Innovation & Entrepreneurship is hosting a discussion with Dr. Maranda Ward (GWSMHS), Dr. Dwayne Wright (GSEHD) and Dr. Elizabeth Rule (GSE) on October 17 at 1:30pm ET to discuss the role that systemic racism plays in schools.

Join Chelsea Clinton for a moderated discussion with alumni of Up to Us, a CGI U partner committed to increasing civic engagement and education on October 9 at 4:30pm ET.

Join CGI-U for a conversation with President Bill Clinton, Chelsea Clinton, and leading topic experts on October 8 at 11:00am ET to talk about the fiscal future, about the important role that young people can play in reinventing civic engagement and public service.

For a moderated discussion with alumni of the Up to Us program, about the important role that young people can play in reinventing civic engagement and public service, join us during National Voter Education Week to turnout the vote this election from the comfort of your own couch while watching a movie! Couch Partiers are external events sponsored by the Nashman Center.

Join the Clinton Global Initiative University and Chelsea Clinton, Vice Chair of the Clinton Foundation, to discuss inclusion. Concepts and practices to create new solutions to combat bias and advance diversity, equity, and education with a special 3.5-hour design sprint to facilitate a community brainstorm.

Honey W. Nashman Center for Civic Engagement and Public Service

GW Votes National Voter Education Week

National Voter Registration Day

Register to vote, sign up to receive our future emails, and to stand with those who support us and each other.

Start a conversation with us now! Write a story, opportunity or event you want to share on Instagram, and share with us what your vote means!

Check out our story highlights on Instagram.

We vote because our society and democracy depend on it. When we vote, we take back our power to choose, to speak up, and to stand with those who support us and each other.

GW Votes National Voter Registration Day

Your preferences | OPT OUT

When we vote, we take back our power to choose, to speak up, and to stand with those who support us and each other.