Peabody Newsletter

NOVEMBER 2019

Another busy month at the Peabody - our blog entries are as diverse as our workload! Learn more about our involvement in repatriation or read an update on our collection reboxing project; understand more about how our work is funded or help us recover missing artifacts. Keep reading and have a Happy Thanksgiving!

Missing Artifacts

Contributed by Ryan Wheeler

Several artifacts have been missing from the Peabody Institute since the 1990s. The Peabody, along with the FBI, have worked on recovering these missing artifacts. At least three artifacts remain missing. Read on to learn more about these missing artifacts and objects that have recently been returned.

Boxes in the Attic

Contributed by Rachel Manning

New ideas emerge in the Peabody's Inventory and Rehousing Project. The transition and storage of collection boxes to the Peabody attic provide a practical use for the space and cost-saving benefits for the Institute. Read on for more about these activities at the Peabody.
