CAMPUS HIGHLIGHTS

In the world of LSU, every day is an opportunity for students to learn and grow. Whether it's through academic pursuits, extracurricular activities, or community engagement, LSU provides a dynamic environment for students to thrive. Here's a snapshot of some recent highlights:

1. Audubon Day Events: LSU Libraries is hosting a series of events throughout the Spring 2019 semester to celebrate the 50th anniversary of John James Audubon's Audubon Volumes. These events are free and open to the public and provide a unique opportunity to explore the natural history of the region.
2. STRIPES Program: The University Center for Freshmen Year's STRIPES Program aims to help students understand what it really means to be an LSU Tiger. The program focuses on learning LSU history and culture, and it's open to all students.
3. LSU Libraries: LSU Libraries continues to provide valuable resources and services to students and the community. The online library offers access to a wealth of educational materials, and the LSU Foundation hosts events to support students and future alumni.
4. LSU President: F. King Alexander, LSU President, has been a strong advocate for student success. He continues to lead the university in providing opportunities for students to achieve their goals.

ASK YOUR TIGER

Do you have any upcoming events or activities that you think our community should know about? Let us know by reaching out to askyourtiger@lsu.edu.

SAVE THE DATE

LSU FAMILY WEEKEND

OCTOBER 4 - 6, 2019

This annual event is a great way for families to connect with their student and explore all that LSU has to offer. There will be opportunities to learn about campus life, connect with faculty and staff, and participate in fun activities.

FOLLOW US ON SOCIAL MEDIA

Follow LSU Family Weekend on Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram to stay up-to-date on all the latest information and events. Use the hashtag #LSUFamilyWeekend to share your experience.