The University Chaplaincy is a dynamic hub supporting religious, spiritual, ethical, and cultural life for all members of the Tufts community. We provide pastoral care, support religious and philosophical communities, educate about rituals and traditions at this time of year. A reception of cocoa and treats will follow on the Goddard Chapel steps. We welcome you to join us! Please email program manager WuZee, Shir Appeal, Public Harmony, Ballroom Dance Team, and stories from chaplains and students about their themes of peace and light. Dancing, singing, and story-telling will light up Goddard Chapel. We will welcome Chaplaincy from near and far.

We celebrate the anniversary of the birth (nativity) of Jesus. December 25 is the date of this observance for Roman tradition, the Buddha's Enlightenment is celebrated during Wesak. The dates and names of Buddhist celebrations in the northern tradition, this is the anniversary of the Buddha's Enlightenment, ca. 596 BCE. In the southern tradition, the Buddha's Enlightenment is celebrated during Wesak. The dates and names of Buddhist celebrations.

Period of four weeks in which Christians prepare for Christmas and meditate on the end of all time. In Western tradition, this is the Advent period. It begins on the Sunday after the first Sunday in November and ends on Christmas Day. During Advent, Christians prepare for the celebration of the birth of Jesus Christ. Advent is a season of expectant waiting and anticipatory preparation. It is characterized by the theme of love, as expressed in the nativity story of the birth of Jesus.

These events are drawn from the multifaith calendar maintained by the Office of Religious and Spiritual Life at Tufts University. For more information about the events listed above, please visit the Office of Religious and Spiritual Life's website at chaplaincy@tufts.edu.

Tufts University Chaplaincy | Goddard Chapel, 3 The Green | Medford, MA 02155 US

Reach out to us to learn more about the University Chaplaincy and how we can support your spiritual and religious needs.

For more information or to sign up, please contact chaplaincy@tufts.edu.